

SENATE IS READY TO END SPECIAL TERM

NOTIFIES WILSON THAT IT
WOULD LIKE TO ADJOURN
IF AGREEABLE TO HIM.

M'COMBS IS TO ACCEPT

Chairman of the Democratic National Committee Reverses His Former Decision as to Foreign Post.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, March 17.—The senate notified President Wilson this afternoon that it was prepared to end the present session at once if he had no further business to lay before it. A committee consisting of Senators Kern and Callinger was sent to the White House to learn the president's wishes and the senate recessed.

Wilson today issued the formal proclamation convening congress in extra session at noon on April 7.

The president's pronouncement today was brief and followed form closely. It stated merely that "whereas public interest requires" congress would be convened in extra session by order of the executive.

Need Additional Time.
Originally Mr. Wilson had fixed upon April 1 as the date. Representative Underwood, the democratic majority leader, having informed him that the tariff bills to which it was agreed congress should give immediate attention, would be ready on that date. Mr. Underwood found, however, that the ways and means committee would need another week to draft the tariff schedule and today's proclamation is in deference to the wishes of Mr. Underwood and house leaders.

The absence of any specific reason for the calling of the extra session is explained by the fact that Mr. Wilson's statement immediately after his election declared that he would call an extra session to revise the tariff.

Message on Tariff.

President Wilson plans to point out specifically his wishes for the extra session in his first message in preparation. This, it is known from the talk of the president has had with members of congress, will outline the administration's idea of how the tariff schedule should be taken up. The belief is general that the entire message will be taken up with a discussion of the tariff with the exception of the last paragraph or two which will draw attention to the need of currency legislation at the earliest possible moment and will indicate the purpose of the president to send later a special message on that or other subjects which he believes should be taken up by the new congress.

Committee Nearly Ready.
The tariff plan will be submitted first to the caucus and then directly to the house by the ways and means committee.

"The committee will be ready to report by that time," said Democratic Leader Underwood today. "We have made headway and there will be no trouble about reporting the revised plan when congress convenes."

The majority of the ways and means committee began taking up the administrative features of the new tariff. These provisions relate to the variety of custom house routine and the efforts of the democrats in changing the terms and phraseology of the administrative section is to simplify and facilitate the customs work both in the interest of the government and the importers. A number of changes along that line were suggested by witnesses during the tariff hearing in January.

For Immediate Action.
The tariff revision plan will be in such condition that whatever form the caucus determines upon it can be reported immediately out of the committee and the whole tariff discussion formally opened in the house without delay.

There will be no attempt to take all or even the bulk of the house committee at the outset of the extra session, that being reserved under the present plan until the close of the extra session so as to obviate any unnecessary legislation until the regular session of congress convenes in December. The ways and means committee personnel already has been determined in democratic caucus of the 63d congress and it will be ratified by the house at the opening of the extra session when the committee on rules, mileage and accounts also will be named. Whether any other committee will be created for doing business at the extra session depends on developments between now and April 7.

McCombs' Appointment.
The nomination of Chairman William F. McCombs of the democratic national committee to be ambassador to France, was prepared at the White House today, but as it was about to be transmitted to the senate it was withheld at Mr. McCombs' request. Mr. McCombs, however, has decided to accept the post and it is said the delay does not mean a change of his intentions.

Intimations were received at the White House today that National Chairman William F. McCombs finally might accede to the president's request that he become ambassador to France. It was said that Mr. McCombs was making such rapid progress with the organization of the democratic national committee that he probably would be in a position to go abroad within a month. It is not improbable that Mr. McCombs will retain the chairmanship of the democratic national committee and might return before the next presidential campaign to take up active political work.

To Await Congress.

President Wilson does not expect to announce any more appointments until the extra session of congress convenes, April 7th, unless some extraordinary occasion requires it.

The first sequence to President Wilson's determination to refer office-seekers to members of his cabinet, came today when Secretary McAdoo announced that he was compelled to decline to receive personal applications for office.

John Bassett Moore, professor of international law at Columbia university, and a recognized authority on that subject, is to be appointed counselor to the department of state. Prof. Moore was appointed recently by Mr. Taft as a representative at The Hague tribunal.

To Study Rural Credit.
President Wilson today appointed Senators Fletcher and Gore, Representative Moss of Indiana, Col. Harvey Jordan of Georgia, Dr. J. Lee Coulter of Minnesota, and Dr. K. L. Butterfield of Massachusetts and Clarence J. Owen of Maryland, members of a commission to study co-operative rural credit unions and similar organizations in Europe. The same men also have been designated as delegates to the general assembly of the international institute of agriculture in Rome next August.

The appointment of the commission was authorized in the last agricultural appropriations bill.

On Suffrage Matter.
Suffrage for the women of the United States by a constitutional amendment was formally presented to President Wilson today by a committee of national leaders in the movement. Mr. Wilson was urged to recommend to the special session of congress action on such an amendment, but he told his visitors that he had not made up his mind on the suffrage question.

"The president was courteous and sympathetic throughout," said Mrs. Ida H. Harpless of New York, one of the leaders of the National Woman's Suffrage association. "He said there were many pressing questions to come up at the extra session and that if he did not recommend action on the question he did not want it to be taken as an indication of his general attitude as he was not committing himself as yet."

HUNTING ON SUNDAY
MAY BE PROHIBITED

Assemblyman Johnson Seeks to Put Ban on Sunday Diversion by Terms of Proposed Law.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 17.—Hunting on Sunday may be prohibited by law, Assemblyman K. A. Johnson of Columbia county is the author of a bill to accomplish this purpose. His bill provides that any person who shall be present at any dancing or public diversion, show or entertainment, or hunt any variety of game by any method on Sunday shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $10. Opposition to the bill have developed in some of the cities of the state, where workingmen claim that Sunday is the only day that they can hunt. Farmers are generally in favor of the bill, according to the letters received by members of the assembly. The bill will be given a hearing by the judiciary committee this week.

PATERSON CELEBRATES
BY DISPLAYING FLAGS

Displays Stars and Stripes Over Various Buildings to Demonstrate Patriotism.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paterson, N. J., March 17.—The national flag floated today from dwellings and business houses all over this city. Many citizens agreed to take the means of answering recent utterances of leaders of the silk mills strike which they considered unpatriotic. There has not been such a display of the stars and stripes here since the Spanish war.

About 200 striking operatives applied for their old jobs in the mills today, but most of the mills are still closed.

MOUNTAIN IS MOVING
DOWN ON A VILLAGE

Traveling at Rate of Eight to Ten Inches Per Hour—Towns People Desert Home.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Neuchâtel, Switzerland, March 17.—For the past three days the inhabitants of the village of Fleurier lying near Lake Neuchâtel in the shadow of Mount Caroline have been in a state of panic. The top of the mountain is sliding slowly downward and threatens to overwhelm the place. The mass is moving at the rate of eight or ten inches an hour and there is imminent danger of acceleration in the speed of its descent.

The people nearby moved their belongings to neighboring hills where they remain in the open watching the mountain peak in terror. A similar movement of Mt. Caroline began in 1889, but ceased after a few hours.

ACTRESS DIES ON STEAMER FROM EPILEPTIC ATTACK

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Southampton, Eng., March 17.—A post-mortem examination today of the body of Francis Leslie, the young actress who was found dead Saturday on board the steamship Oceanic showed that death was due to an attack of epilepsy. There was no evidence of foul play.

Tennessee Legislature Resumes.

Nashville, Tenn., March 17.—The Tennessee legislature resumed business today after a recess of several weeks. Thirty days yet remain of the regular session.

WILL NOT OFFER THE TERMS TO TURKEY IN THEIR PRESENT FORM

Powers Refuse to Act as Mediators Between Balkan States and Their Enemy.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Berlin, March 17.—The European powers this week will inform the Balkan allies that their suggested terms for peace negotiations with Turkey were inadmissible. The powers will decline to submit them to Turkey.

A carefully worded note to this effect was drawn up by the ambassadors in London at their latest conference and is now being considered in the various European capitals. It is to be handed to the allies after it has been approved by a further conference in London on Wednesday.

The note will suggest that the modification of the allies demands is "indispensable." It will urge strongly the necessity for the conclusion of peace.

ENGLISH DUKE WILL HANDLE OWN ESTATE

Marlborough To Put Thousand Acres
Of Meadow Land Under Cultivation.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

London, March 17.—The Duke of Marlborough's announced intention of placing 1,000 acres of meadow land on his estate at Blenheim under the plow has attracted great attention here. The duke, who owns 20,000 acres, has chosen this method of waging a campaign against the present government's proposed legislation in the direction of the nationalization of land in the British Isles.

The Duke of Marlborough argues that a private landlord can administer his lands more cheaply and efficiently than the state.

He will endeavor to demonstrate his theories by showing that he can employ a great number of laborers, pay them better wages and produce a greater yield than would be possible under state administration.

HAVE INFORMATION
AS TO THE THIEVES

Good Description of Men Who Looted
Pawn Shop in New York Is Obtained.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, March 17.—The cracksmen who tunneled their way through heavy brick and concrete walls avoiding a network of burglar alarm wires, and stole $300,000 worth of diamonds from the safe of Martin Simons & Sons pawnshop on the lower east side, were seen in flight with their booty by a woman, the police announced today.

This woman, whose name the police withhold, lives in a five-story tenement adjoining the pawnshop. She told the detective that she was coming down stairs about ten o'clock yesterday morning when a strange man came up from the cellar of the tenement. He carried an acetylene lamp on his shoulder and she followed him to the street where she saw another man drive up in a light wagon. Into the wagon the first man placed the lamp. He then went back to the cellar and returned in a few moments with another lamp and a parcel done up in Manila paper. He placed these in the wagon and both men drove away.

The police are certain they are the men who climbed through the walls of the tenement's foundation to the cellar of the pawnshop. The brown paper parcel they believed contained the fortune in gems taken from the safe. From the woman they obtained a good description of the two men. Later they took her to the roguerie gallery to identify the men, if possible, from pictures of criminals on file there.

"BOSS" COX MAY BE ONE OF MEN NAMED

New Indictments Found Against Many Prominent Men by Grand Jury.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Cincinnati, March 17.—Secret indictments were returned today against former officials of the Cincinnati Trust Company of which George R. Cox was president. The indictments were sealed and court officials declined to say how many had been returned. It was said the defendants would not be sighted into court until tomorrow. Affairs of the trust company have been under investigation most of the time since its absorption a year ago by the Provident Savings Bank and Trust Company.

WILL INVESTIGATE
BUTTERINE FRAUDS

Judge Landis Appoints Special Grand Jury to Investigate Matter.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, March 17.—Judge Landis in the United States district court today instructed a special grand jury to investigate alleged butterine frauds compromised by the international revenue department on March 4. The grand jurors are to learn if the manufacturers were not guilty of conspiracy to defraud the government under section 37 of the national penal code. The jurors also were instructed to ascertain if any members of the national guard were guilty of conspiracy.

NEUVO LAREDO SCENE OF SHARP FIGHTING;
REPULSE THE REBELS

Carranza and His Followers Seek to Rush Federal Forces But Are Driven Back.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Laredo, Tex., March 17.—A handful of Carranza followers, under cover of darkness this morning, crept into Nuevo Laredo, the Mexican port of entry opposite this city, and after two hours of fighting the Carranza followers retreated. No harm to Americans from bullets flying across the border was reported. Casualties in the Mexican town were reported to be heavy.

Colonel Brewer, commanding officer of the 14th United States cavalry, on patrol duty here, sent word early in the day that there must be no firing in a direction which would endanger border points on the American side.

Early reports placed the number of the Carranza followers at 600, but when the retreat began their number was estimated at 200.

It was reported that many persons had been wounded in the battle.

In the battle at Nuevo Laredo this morning twenty Carranza followers and fifteen federals were killed. Fifty fifty soldiers were wounded. The Carranza followers retreated to the hills south of the city where they appeared to be preparing for a fresh assault. The street battle continued an hour and a half.

Zapata's Rebels.

Pueblo, Mex., March 17.—A detachment of twenty-two adherents of the rebel, Zapata, were captured by federal troops near here yesterday, taken to a neighboring farm, lined up and shot without trial. The action of the federal troops meets with approval of the inhabitants of the district.

Work Delayed.

Washington, March 17.—Official reports today from Merossillo indicate that work of all kinds is at a standstill and banks are closed. The state government is apparently protecting American interests. Inquire to inquire Baroness Von Hiller is reported to sail for Mexico City, and Mrs. Theodore Abbott is reported in Satillo in no danger.

Unexpected Battle.

Laredo, Texas, March 17.—A battle unexpectedly began in Nuevo Laredo, the Mexican town opposite here at day break today. Carranzistas reported to number 600 during the night had forced their way into the city and occupied a large factory. At dawn a salvo of rifle firing awoke Americans in Laredo. The first fight that erupted then was a rush of refugees across the bridge to American soil.

Many women carrying their children jammed the bridge headless of wagon traffic. Numerous officials of Laredo were among the refugees. The officers carried books and records by the armfuls.

CHAMP CLARK IS GUEST AT BOSTON CELEBRATION

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Boston, Mass., March 17.—There was a double celebration in this day, Evacuation day and St. Patrick's feast being observed. The ceremonies marking the anniversary of the evacuation of Boston by the British were the most notable. The day's excursions were centered upon the South Boston peninsula, upon which the British forces were encamped. A military and naval parade was the principal feature of the program. Speaker Clark was the guest of honor at the celebration and reviewed the parade in company with Governor Foss, Mayor Fitzgerald and other dignitaries.

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS ON PHYSICAL EDUCATION

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Paris, March 17.—Delegates from many countries, including the United States, assembled in Paris today to take part in the first international congress on physical education. The sessions, which will continue several days, are being held under the auspices of the faculty of medicine of the University of Paris.

Cast Off The Old
Put On The New

(By J. P. Fallon.)

Only a few days more to Easter Sunday. Don't put off buying your Easter suit a moment longer.

Have you ever stopped to think how the custom of wearing new things at Easter came about?

Some thought of it may be found in the Resurrection, the world reborn, casting aside its old clothes and taking on new apparel and new ideals. It is the close of winter and Mother Earth dons a new suit of green in honor of the Springtime.

So, in order to be as well dressed as Mother Earth, we must have new hats, new suits, new shoes, new gloves and new things of all kinds. They must be just right, in texture, in cut, in color and contrast. They must be of the right quality and right price.

The merchants of Janesville have been preparing for Easter and Springtime ever since the first snowfall. They are well prepared. Read their advertisements in THE GAZETTE closely and constantly every day and keep well informed regarding all the new things. Then you will be able to purchase your Springtime apparel at the right store and at the right price.

STUDENTS IN FAVOR OF DRY ZONE BILL

University Students at Mass Meeting
Vote to Petition Legislature to Pass Measure.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., March 17.—Near the close of a mass meeting at the university gymnasium last night, university students and residents of Madison presented resolutions petitioning the legislature to pass the dry zone bill by which it is proposed to wipe out saloons from the capital city for the benefit of the students. The resolutions were adopted by rising vote.

The speakers were Pearl L. Lincoln, mayor of Richmond Center, a dry town; Prof. M. V. O'Shea of the university faculty; Richard Lloyd Jones, a Madison editor, and Attorney T. C. Richmond.

Mayor Lincoln, himself a Wisconsin graduate, declared that his city has experienced the greatest era of prosperity in his history around Richmond Center. He read a long list of business and professional men who testified to their satisfaction with the new regime.

Prof. O'Shea asserted that conditions in Madison were no worse than in other college towns where no dry zone exists, but that the inducement to immature youths to acquire habits in Madison saloons was one that a state-owned university ought not to tolerate. He said that nothing in Madison is so seductive to students as the saloons, and that the welfare of the students and the hopes of their parents demand the suppression of certain individual liberties.

Editor Jones quoted statements of a dozen presidents and numerous governors in opposition to the liquor traffic. T. C. Richmond proposed as a test of sentiment on the proposition a half holiday be granted the students and that the march on the capitol, shouting, "We want the dry zone."

GUARANTEE DEPOSIT
ACT IS HELD VALID

Kansas Law Declared Constitutional
by United States Supreme Court —Restraining Order Granted.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, March 17.—The supreme court today formally upheld as constitutional the Kansas bank guarantee deposit act of 1909. The act was held constitutional about two years after objection by state banks, but the national banks of Kansas still persisted in their fight against the law.

Before recessing the court granted a restraining order to prevent Postmaster General Burleson from enforcing the newspaper publicity law while the court has under consideration the question of its constitutionality.

The supreme court announced it would recess from next Monday until April 7. It announced no decision in the important race cases.

Justice Brandeis' memory was paid today by several members of the supreme court as they took their places on the bench. Chief Justice White wore a green ribbon in his coat and so did Justice Pitney. Holmes wore a green necktie.

MAKES RESTRICTION
AS TO TRUNK'S SIZE

Interstate Commerce Commission
Makes New Ruling That Affects Traveling Public.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, March 17.—Baggage in excess of 45 inches in any dimension exceeding width as applied to "cases" may be charged for at excess rates by railroads according to a decision today by the interstate commerce commission, and if it measures more than 72 inches the carriers may refuse to accept it at all. The charge may not exceed the charge for five pounds of excess baggage for each inch over 45 inches. Widths in excess of 16 inches in length and 12 inches in diameter. After a year's notice a railroad may refuse trunks with more than two bulging sides, or with two such sides not opposite each other.

SEARCH FOR CRACKSMEN
WHO MAKE $250,000 HAUL

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, March 17.—Fifty detectives were at work today trying to run down the cracksmen who robbed Martin Simons and Sons pawnshop on the lower east side some time yesterday of over $250,000 worth of jewelry.

FIRE CAUSES EXPLOSION OF NITRO GLYCERIN HOUSE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Newcastle, Pa., March 17.—A small fire of unknown origin caused an explosion today in a nitro glycerin house of the Hutton Powder Company at Covent Station near here. No one was injured.

FLAG POLE SMASHED
BY FREIGHT CAR

[SPECIAL GADSDENSV AR.]

Oshkosh, Wis., March 17.—A freight car on the Soo road jumped the track at Algoma street crossing near the station this morning and landed on top of the flag house, crushing it to splinters. The flag man escaped with slight injuries.

POLICEMAN DIES SUDDENLY IN ATTITUDE OF PRAYER

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, March 17.—John P. Brown, a member of Chicago's police force for the last five years, died suddenly today while on his knees saying his prayer. He was found in an attitude of devotion by his mother.

MURDERER OF BAILEY
EXPIATES FOR CRIME

Albert L. Watson Hanged at Shreveport Today for Taking Life of Wealthy Mill Owner.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Shreveport, La., March 17.—Protesting to the very last that his woman accomplice was for more guilty than he, Albert L. Watson was hanged here today for his part in the murder of C. C. Bailey. Mrs. Bailey, who was the wife of the murdered man, is serving a five years sentence in the penitentiary for her share in the crime.

The murder of Bailey, who was a wealthy mill owner, was the result of a love affair between Mrs. Bailey and Watson. According to the alleged confessions of the guilty pair Mrs. Bailey conspired to rid herself of her husband and Watson agreed to do away with his wife.

Mrs. Watson is believed to have been killed in a Texas town in the spring of 1912. A short time later Watson came to Metcalf, La., where Bailey operated a lumber mill, obtained employment and was taken in to the Bailey home as a member of the family. Bailey was murdered on the night of September 2, 1912, when Watson was arrested on suspicion he declared Bailey was slain by a burglar.

Under the rigid examination of the authorities Watson weakened and made a clean breast of what he declared was a double murder plot. According to the confession he and Mrs. Bailey had entered into a compact at Flannigan, Texas, by which Watson was to poison his wife and Mrs. Bailey her husband. Watson declared he had fulfilled his part of the agreement before coming to Louisiana.

Upon his arrival at Metcalf he urged Mrs. Bailey to bury her part of the conspiracy. He declared that the woman tried several times to poison her husband but failed because she did not know how to administer the dose. Meanwhile Bailey became suspicious and quarreled with his wife. On the day of the tragedy she left their home. Watson crept into the house during the night, carrying a heavy axe, with which he confessed he murdered Bailey.

"When I raised that ax," Watson is quoted as saying in his confession, "to strike that sleeping man, I said to myself: 'This will send my soul to hell. That's where I belong, and the sooner I'm hanged the better I shall be satisfied.'"

On the eve of execution Watson adhered to his declaration that Mrs. Bailey had exerted a sort of hypnotic influence over him that caused him to accede to her request to kill Bailey despite his own abhorrence of the deed. He also reiterated his charge that Mrs. Bailey had poisoned his wife.

Previous to the execution W. A. Watson, a brother of the condemned man, signed a formal document before a notary placing himself to take care of his brother's three little girls as if they were his own.

HYDE JURY UNABLE TO REACH VERDICT

Brought Into Court and Discharged by The Judge This Morning—
Vote Doubtful.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Kansas City, Mo., March 17.—After having deliberated since 10 o'clock Thursday night, the jury in the case of Dr. Hyde on trial for the murder of Colonel Thomas H. Swope, millionaire philanthropist, reported today a disagreement and it was discharged. The jury stood nine to acquittal and three for conviction.

FALLS INTO SEWER MAIN;
BODY CARRIED INTO BAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Newark, N. J., March 17.—Overcome by noxious gases as he was descending a ladder in a sewer manhole here, Frederick Martin, 37 years old, fell into the water, rushing in a torrent through the six foot main and was swept away. Manhole after manhole for a distance of blocks were opened as the alarm was given and rescue parties tried to head off the victim's body. The efforts were unsuccessful, however, and it is believed Martin was swept into the open creek which the sewer becomes as it passes through the meadows and on into the waters of Newark Bay.

NEGRO ACCOSTS WHITE GIRL AND SLASHES POLICEMAN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, March 17.—Daniel T. Davis, a negro accosted a young white woman, who stepped from an up town subway station today and grabbed her by the arm until she screamed. A policeman who interfered was slashed across the face with a razor wielded by the negro who then fled.

Although weak from loss of blood from shots at the fleeing negro four of which pierced his body, Davis fell dead five blocks from the scene of the encounter.

INSPECTIONS IN ILLINOIS
CITIES ARE POSTPONED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, March 17.—The senate vice commission to a program mapped here today will not visit more Illinois cities until after its eastern trip in the interest of a minimum wage law for women.

PRESIDENT REQUESTS PASSAGE OF JURY REFORM MEASURE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, March 17.—President Wilson today telegraphed to J. Warren Davis, democratic leader of the New Jersey state senate and to Governor James F. Fielder demanding that the pending jury reform bill be passed without amendment.

ARGUMENTS MADE BY
EKERN'S LAWYERS IN THE SUPREME COURT

Attorneys Advance Same Reasons as They Did in the Circuit Court Hearing.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Madison, March 17.—Arguments in the Ekern case were concluded in the supreme court today. Attorney John L. Aylward for Herman L. Ekern spoke very much along the same lines as when the case was presented to Judge Stevens.

A. C. Umreig appeared for the governor and cited many decisions to prove that courts are without jurisdiction to control by injunction the chief executive of a state. Attorney Harry L. Butler also appeared for the governor.

States Ekern's Case.
Three general reasons why Herman L. Ekern seeks a permanent injunction restraining Governor McGovern from dispossessing him from the office of insurance commissioner were made by Attorney Michael B. Olbrich before the supreme court late Saturday afternoon. After declaring that "under the undisputed facts Ekern has a clear legal title to the office because there has been no removal," Mr. Olbrich outlined the case as follows:

"The order of removal in this case was wholly void upon its face for want of the great seal being affixed thereto in compliance with law."

"The cause of removal assigned was no offense under the statute and the order is void because the governor was without jurisdiction."

"It appears from the proceedings that the governor's action was arbitrary and wholly wanting in good faith."

The case was reached at 4:10 p. m., and after Mr. Olbrich had opened the case the court adjourned until this morning, when John A. Aylward was to continue the arguments for Mr. Ekern. Attorneys Harry L. Butler of Madison and A. C. Umreig of Milwaukee, represented Governor McGovern, William L. Essman and Lewis A. Anderson.

Olbrich's Contentions.
This was an appeal from an order made by the circuit court for Dane county denying Ekern's application for a temporary injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with Ekern's possession of the office of insurance commissioner.

In contending that the governor had no jurisdiction, Mr. Olbrich submitted that the complaint alleged no "official misconduct or wilful neglect of duty," and that L. L. Johnson was not a "political candidate" in the legally and usually accepted sense of that term. In declaring that the removal act was not executed in good faith, he asserted that the order was prepared and the intention to remove formed prior to the hearing granted the commissioner. He cited numerous decisions to prove that the failure to affix the great seal to a removal order invalidated the order, declaring that to make the order effective the removal must be completed before the legislature met. Until the public seal was attached, he said, the action of removal was not complete.

In conclusion he said that if the court will not terminate the controversy, it should preserve the status

MRS. WORRY.

Port Snap Shots

by Dan McCort

Pitcher Roy Walker will not have to worry about getting into condition when he joins the Cleveland Naps at Pensacola in the near future. For three months he has not drank, smoked, or done any other thing which would detract from his physical well being. During most of that time, he has swung a sledge-hammer over a blacksmith's anvil. Walker has been looked up in jail at Nashville for a little cutting affray he got into last fall. He says he has reformed for good and all and will stay in condition without any urging from Manager Birmingham.

Boston is taking an increased interest in field athletics. The Boston Athletic Association contemplates making a bid for the national track and field championships which are held in June by the American Athletic Union. The probability that Yale and Harvard athletes will meet Oxford and Cambridge at the same time is mentioned as likely to give an international flavor to this year's events.

Chicago baseball enthusiasts are planning a "Frank Chance Day" for the first appearance of the New York Yankees in Chicago May 15. The fans have bought up 2,000 seats on the first base side of the grounds, hoping that the former leader of the Chicago Cubs will be able to play the initial sack on that day. An automobile parade headed by a brass band and a police escort will precede the game.

From fighting for a purse of $40,000 to a lingering death of tuberculosis in a hut is the descent of Jim Hall, former prominent pugilist. Over twenty years ago he was knocked out in the fourth round by Robert Fitzsimmons for a purse of $40,000. He was found dying penniless in a hotel at Neenah, Wis., the other day. The state anti-tuberculosis society of Wisconsin is caring for him.

Walter Johnson, probably the speediest pitcher in baseball and the main spring of the Washington American hurling staff, says he expects the coming season to be the best he has ever had. His reason is that he is in better health than in any preceding spring. He believes that he will be better fitted to go through a hard season than ever before and that in addition he will have a better team behind him than the National in the past have presented. These two things, he thinks, should make him surpass all his previous brilliant records. If Walter's predictions come out as he thinks, he will make 'em all take a back seat. Only Wood and Plank stood ahead of him in the percentage tables last year. He won 32 games and lost 12.

Joe Evers is said to be having his hands full with the Chicago Cubs in training at Tampa, Fla. The story has it the majority of the old stars are still in sympathy with Frank Chance and are also a little heated up over the railroading of Joe Tinker to Cincinnati. Chance could whip the bad actors while Evers is too small to do anything of that sort. Jimmy Sheppard is reported to be one of the trouble-makers due for letting out, with Otis Clymer being groomed to take his place in the outfield.

party will include fifteen players and will be in charge of Captain Akana. Nearly all the players were members of the team which made a similar tour of the United States last year.

CALENDAR OF SPORTS FOR THE WEEK.

Monday
Opening of annual Southern Cross golf tournament at Aiken, S. C.
Eddie McGorty vs. Bob Moha, 10 rounds, at Milwaukee.
Jack Britton vs. Billy Kruse, 6 rounds, at Philadelphia.
Tommy Burns vs. Arthur Pelky, 6 rounds, at Calgary, Alta.
George Brown vs. Jack Geyer, 20 rounds, at San Francisco.
Jack McCarron vs. Johnny Glover, 6 rounds, at Scranton, Pa.
Tuesday
Opening of annual tournament of Camden Polo Club, Camden, S. C.
Harry Trendall vs. Jack Shelton, 10 rounds, at St. Louis.
Wednesday
Ora Morningstar vs. Willie Hoppe, at Pittsburgh, for 18.1 ballline championship.
Abe Attell vs. Ollie Kirke, 10 rounds, at New York.
Thursday
Opening of bench show of Toronto and Ontario Kennel Clubs, at Toronto.
Friday
Intercollegiate wrestling championships at Cornell University.
Intercollegiate fencing championships begin in New York city.
Meeting at Harrisburg, Pa., to complete organization of Tri-State Baseball League.
Annual convention of the Canadian Lacrosse Association at Toronto.
Opening of annual bench show of Del Monte Kennel Club, Del Monte, Cal.
Saturday
Opening of annual United North and South amateur championship golf tournament at Pinehurst, N. C.
Opening of annual Horse Show in Paris, France.

FOUR WISCONSIN PLAYERS ON ALL-WESTERN FIVE

Madison, Wis., March 17.—Dr. W. E. Meadwell, coach of the University of Wisconsin's victorious basketball team, has picked the following all-western team:
1st Team—Van Gent, (Wis.) center; A. Johnson, (Wis.) forward; Vreulink, (Chicago) forward; Harper, (Wisconsin) guard; Van Riper, (Wis.) Capt. guard.
2nd Team—Des Jardins, (Chicago) center; Teeple, (Purdue) for-

GRAND CIRCUIT WINNER TO BE TRAINED ONLY FOR RECORD BREAKING IN 1913

Joe Patchen II.

According to Havis James, who trains for R. J. McKenzie, Joe Patchen II, 2:03 1/4, the pacer that went through the Grand Circuit in 1912 like a whirlwind, will be seldom if at all seen this coming season in competition. James says the horse will be prepared exclusively for record breaking. In 1912 Joe Patchen won $27,175, the largest sum ever gathered by a sidewheeler during a single season.

JANESVILLE OUT TO WIN AGAINST RIVALS

Wednesday and Thursday Nights Games Promise to Be Climax of the Polo Season.

What promises to be the best polo game of the year is to be played at the rink Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week. This game is between two teams representing the best polo players in their respective sections. The Janesville Moose team has been successful against every team they have competed with after a bad start at the first of the season. They demonstrated their playing ability when they downed the crack Racine team after being defeated by that team in the early part of the schedule. While their season has not been undefeated their playing ability has been unbeatable.

Their opponents, who hail from Richmond, Ind., are all star players. This team are members of the crack eastern league and are champions of their state. Every member is a player of recognized ability and polo playing is their only profession. Playing five and six times a week they have become experts at the game.

The Janesville team realize what they are up against and are preparing for the game of their career. Hard practices have been indulged in and the players' home to answer both games. Captain Kilmer predicts a close score after a hard fought game. The Indiana team goes to Racine to play that team immediately after playing here, so the local team is doubly anxious to down the visitors so if Racine is defeated it will leave the Janesville team standing in the eyes of the fans above any team in the northwest. Large crowds are expected to witness both contests and everything is being done to make these contests the gala games of the season.

Just Before It Happened.
Belshazzar (at the famous feast)—Well, that's a nice surprise! The dinner committee has arranged to have some moving pictures!—Puck.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS:
Subscribers changing address should report the same promptly to this office by mail or telephone. In reporting change be sure to give both old and new address.

WORKING FOR EQUAL SUFFRAGE IN NEVADA

Miss Anne Martin.

Miss Anne Martin, president, press chairman, and sole state organizer of the Nevada Equal Suffrage League, is working for a special election on an equal suffrage amendment to the state constitution in 1912. The amendment was just passed by the legislature for the second time and, unless there is a special election this year, must go over to 1914 for the popular vote at a regular election.

GLASGOW 2 1/2 in. BELMONT 2 3/4 in. MEDORA 2 1/2 in.
ARROW COLLARS
Narrow Collars that Meet Close in Front
13c., 2 for 25c. Chicago, Peabody & Co.

THE OPTICAL SHOP, 60 S. Main St.
TUESDAY
Warmer—High Winds
Eyeglasses as we fit them are becoming as well as helpful. Every case has careful attention.

What South American country?

JAH! THE FRAGRANT AMERICAN BEAUTY

What style of literature?

Gone the Day of the Love Epistle.
Modern Girl—"If you really loved me all the time, why didn't you let me know?" Modern Youth—"I couldn't find a post card with the right words on it."

Many people scan the want ad every day for some thing perhaps, that you have to sell. Why not let them know it?

John Ruskin
Two Sizes
AFTER DINNER - RECESS
A Cigar FOR ALL MEN

Get rid of your old furniture by using Gazette Want Ads.

What human attribute?

digestion off?

Digestion is the action of saliva and gastric juices on food.

If you don't chew enough, you don't make saliva enough. Digestion suffers.

makes extra saliva—restores a balance again.

In this process the refreshing mint leaf juice helps. Your teeth are helped—your appetite is helped—your nerves are soothed—your breath is made pure.

Can you pass time so pleasantly—inexpensively—beneficially—any other way?

BUY IT BY THE BOX
It costs less—of any dealer—and stays fresh until used.

Look for the spear
Avoid imitations
D. D. Eno, Adv., Chicago

MAY HIRE TWO MEN FOR "Y" ATHLETES

Secretary Kline is Negotiating for Men to Take Charge of Y. M. C. Athletic Work.

Work on the remodeling of the Y. M. C. A. has been delayed pending the delivery of the iron work for the gymnasium. Mr. Kline, who has returned from his trip in Illinois and Indiana, was well pleased with the progress which had been made during his absence. The plumbing, heating and fixture contracts have been let to local firms.

Mr. Kline made close investigation as to a new physical director to fill the position held by T. C. Hartwell. Over forty men have been considered. The plans at the present time are to hire two men, one to have complete charge of the physical work and be the overseer of the athletic activities, and a second man to care for the lower class work. While nothing definite has been done, officials from the Western Sectional Institute for Physical Directors and General Secretaries have recommended nine men to Mr. Kline as thoroughly able to carry out the work at the Janesville association. This school has a three years' course at Chicago where the students are in active physical culture work in the gymnasium and playground line and also have work at the medical school where they gain knowledge necessary to carry on the physical diagnosis work. After completing a three years' course at the Chicago school a post graduate course is given at the Lake Geneva school where the students are given their diplomas. It is thought that one of the nine men under consideration will be engaged after the summer season to be the head physical director.

Mr. Kline has also tried to secure the services of John Ward, former director of the local Y, now of the Detroit association, but as yet nothing definite has been arranged. Mr. Ward was director here six years ago and was one of the most efficient and popular men that Janesville has ever had in physical culture work.

HAWAIIAN BASEBALL TEAM COMING TO UNITED STATES

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Honolulu, March 17.—The baseball team of the Chinese University of Hawaii will sail tomorrow for San Francisco, to begin a tour of the United States. After a few coast matches, the team will go east, ending its schedule with a series of games with New England colleges the latter part of June. The tour will comprise approximately 50,000 miles. The

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-204 E. Milwaukee St.
 ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE,
 WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Janesville and vicinity: Snow to night or Tuesday; warmer.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For the general information of the public, a charge is made for insertion of the following items in The Gazette: Cards of Thanks, Resolutions, Obituaries. Line rate 12c—six words to the line. There is no charge for death notices and the facts regarding the life of the deceased. Obituary notices sent in days or weeks afterward are charged for at line rates. There is no charge for one insertion of lodge, church, society or other organization meeting notices. Additional insertions will be charged at line rates. To avoid mistakes, etc., these notices must be written out and mailed or handed into the editorial rooms not later than the morning of day for publication. Letters mailed to the Gazette should bear 2c postage stamps. 1c stamp is not sufficient and the letter will be held for postage by the post office unless 2c in stamps are attached.

NEWSPAPER ACCURACY.
 Accuracy is of vital importance to a newspaper. Upon a reputation for veracity and fairness a newspaper may exercise a permanent and lasting influence in its community. Without the public's confidence and trust it can accomplish little. As a result far-seeing publishers and editors have realized the necessity of keeping their news and editorial columns free at all times from misleading statements, partial truths, colored or sensational accounts, or stories which are absolute lies. They have found it to their credit and financial advantage to give their readers the truth in regard to any given topic as far as it is within their power to ascertain the truth. It is true that there are often times when the temptation comes to twist pieces of news so that they will conform to some particular pet policy which the paper has advocated. But if the management is wise it will insist that the unvarnished facts of the case in question shall be given first of all. Greater latitude may follow in editorial comment. If the facts are not given at first a retraction may be necessary later which is sure to indicate weakness, laxity and unreliability. A paper's source of information is consequently a matter of supreme importance and most newspapers prefer to state in their news columns the person or persons from whom their facts have been secured. If it is not policy to mention names, it is important that the editor should know them. It is a newspaper's duty to the public which it serves that it give fair and honest accounts of what transpires. Accuracy is being demanded more and more by the newspapers themselves and by the news-reading public.

GOOD ST. PATRICK.
 Today is St. Patrick's day and no one need hesitate to wear a bit of the green in his memory for, as the inspired Irish bard sang in his praise, "St. Patrick was a gentleman and came of decent people," and we can pause one day in the year to commemorate his memory. But he was a great man, too—a man who loved honor, liberty, humanity, justice and God. In fact, the whole world loved good old St. Patrick in return. France, England, and Scotland claimed him as a native son, and now the United States can claim him as an adopted child. And he was a good man, too—carried the love of God and his fellowmen into more hearts than most any other man. His great work was in Ireland. No wonder the Irish love him; but in celebrating his memory, the Irish have no monopoly, for this great memory grows on the people as the love of liberty, of justice, of humanity and religion grows in the world. So here's to the memory of good St. Patrick! and here, too, is to the loyal sons of the old sod—and may ne'er again a Cromwell get 'em!

EXTRA SESSION CALLED.
 President Wilson has called his extra session of congress, naming April 7th as the date for its assembling. It is the first gathering of the democratic sixty-third congress, and there is much speculation as to what it will be able to accomplish. An exchange, watching the Washington situation closely, believes that it is up to congress to decide how far they will go in reform and discusses what may be accomplished. "It is understood, of course, that some routine matters left over by the last session, the sundry civil appropriation bill among them, shall have early attention. President Wilson, evidently, desires to be exclusive only with reference to matters of general legislation. It would seem that there is authority behind this announcement, and also behind the announcement that the president has been moved to take this course in order that the business of the country may not be unduly disturbed. "The entire session might well be devoted to the subject of tariff revision. Now that the democratic party is in full control and must assume full responsibility, its conservative element will unquestionably join with the republicans at many points in opposition to sweeping changes, and in not a few instances, to changes of all kinds. For the first time in sixteen years the democratic party will have it within its power to carry out its national pledges, assuming that it shall stand united on downward revision. It may be checked, but it cannot be prevented from passing its bill by republican opposition, and there is the best of reason for believing that its conservative section will eventually be brought into line. All the more necessary is it, therefore, that the best thought of the party shall be concentrated on the measure. "As to the latitude of congress, however, the president can go no farther than to make recommendations and support them with such moral influence as his administration can command. Attempts to confine extra sessions to special measures have not heretofore been successful. Mr. Taft failed to manage to his liking the extra sessions called in his term. President Wilson is sound in holding that tariff revision is all that the business of the country should be called upon to stand at one time. His position that the banking and currency question should be deferred until the regular session will probably be approved even by those who are most earnest and urgent in behalf of the proposed reforms in this particular. If the president shall, in his messages to congress, deal with only one important subject at a time, this, also, may go far toward conserving commercial tranquility. "In the end, everything will depend upon the temper of congress. It is sincerely to be hoped that its mood will harmonize with the president's. This, however, cannot be guaranteed. Congress is a free, self-governing body, responsible only to the electorate, and it cannot be called to account at the polls until a year from next November."

Janesville is to be visited during the coming week by an interested party of enthusiastic Y. M. C. A. workers who are seeking to raise thirty-five thousand dollars to lift the indebtedness of the University Y. M. C. A. building. It is a worthy case and Janesville should do its share. The latest offer to be made to Joseph Davies of Madison, by President Wilson, is a place in the war department. Well, Davies led the torn democratic hope to victory last fall in the west, and perhaps the war department would just about fit him. Indiana has a plan to adopt a state song and also to set aside one day yearly for the purpose of killing rats. This goes to show that all of Indiana's brains are not converted into literary pursuits. Mayor Shank of Indianapolis, who sold potatoes at cost to his fellow citizens, is going into vaudeville. Perhaps he expects to make a collection of vegetables en tour. Meanwhile the legislature is still holding sessions—Eckern is still state insurance commissioner, Tom Purtell is still fire marshal, and McGovern still governor. "Tempus agit."

Militant suffragettes have invaded the sacred realm of Scotland and now we may expect something to really begin to happen. Rotation in office in Mexico exceeds the speed limit by several miles per hour.

EXPURGE-MOMENT
 Some Famous Affinities.
 Romeo and Juliet.
 Bacon and eggs.
 Pygmalion and Galatea.
 Plumbing and Gas Fitting.
 Othello and Desdemona.
 Roast Pork and Apple Sass.
 Punch and Judy.
 Boiled Beef and Horseradish.
 Art and Art.
 Hamlet and Ophelia.
 Furniture and Undertaking.

From the Hickeyville Clarion.
 Hod Peters has got a broom stuck in the whip socket of his buggy to indicate that his bay mare beat Deacon Stubbs' roan gelding in the race home from Elihu Prindle's funeral last week. Anse Prisky says if there is anything he would rather go to see than a grand opera, it is a dentist. There ain't any use of running down the road to look for trouble, when you kin sit right still and tink an automobile. There was a time when they said the high wheel bicycle would be impossible and I guess, by ginger, that it was high soon here. About the only difference between ridin' in a limousine and a bearise is that the feller in the limousine can enjoy the advertisin' signs along the road. There is only on thing better than havin' a little money in the bank and that's havin' a little more. Most of the aviators are gettin' so they can go up now at least once or twice. Bud Hicks and Ill Parly are fast friends, and there are those who say they are too fast for our town. There are several other ways of getting rich quick besides workin' on a newspaper. It heathers to look as though the nation heather slice and the fair-land he have come to stay. Miss Pansy Tibbitts has dropped her music and has gone in for art. She says she belongs to the impressionist school and I guess she is telling the truth, for she kin paint an Italian sunset so you can't tell whether it is meant for a red flannel chest-protector or an old-fashioned red yarn muffler. When a feller falls in luv he loses his appetite, but it doesn't save him much as regards the high cost of livin' for he gets it right back again as soon as he gets married.

Sincerity.
 Give me the everyday sort of a man.
 The fellow who laughs when he's glad.
 Give me the open-faced, big-hearted man—
 The feller who weeps when he's sad.
 Give me the man who says just what he thinks—
 The feller who's word is pure gold.
 Give me the man who can always be found—
 The feller who's not bought and sold.
 Give me the man who stands up to the rack—
 The feller whose spirit ne'er bends.
 Give me the man who is there with the goods—
 The feller who stands by his friends.
 He may not be cultured or dandy in dress.
 His lam'in may be purty slim,
 But if he has got the red blood in his veins,
 You can bank your last dollar on him.
 Give me no fair weather, rollicking friends—

HE PAID THE PRICE.
 On Observation hill, near the edge of the antarctic continent, members of the polar expedition headed by Captain Robert E. Scott, set up a memorial cross for their fallen leader and his brave companions. On it appears this fine line from Tennyson's "Ulysses":
 "To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."
 Captain Scott's fate was a peculiarly sad one. He reached the south pole to discover that another had preceded him there by a scant month. He returned to a point nearly in sight of the harbor to die of cold and privation. Yet mournful as was his end there shines out of it a certain white glory. We feel glad in a big way not that he died, but that he lived. We feel glad that he dared take large risks to win a large prize, that he was not afraid to pay the price, that he kept up his records to the end, and that he met his fate like a man. He strove, he sought, he found and did not yield. When one man shows a notable example of heroism, when he comes up to the mark in a conspicuous way, he makes all men a little richer, better, stronger. We human beings are so knit together in our life, so interwoven in one texture of humanity, so dependent each on all and all on each, that one great deed becomes the property and pride of all of us. A new standard has been set, a new incentive is before us. Each high and worthy achievement by man makes human nature higher and more worthy. It shows what man can be at his best. Captain Scott won his glory. That another won it first does not lessen his labor or success. "There is glory enough for all." He marched hundreds of miles through a white wilderness, suffering privations, arduous labors, great perils, hunger and cold, to add to the sum of human knowledge and human achievement. He gave his life to science. Best of all—He did not yield.

HEART TO HEART TALKS
 By JAMES A. EDGERTON
 HE PAID THE PRICE.

Can't Be Beat
 From All Leading Grocers
GOLVIN'S BAKING COMPANY
 Where Cleanliness Is a Habit

Red Cedar Shingles
 No Better Roof On Earth.
 We Have a Big Supply.

Get Our Prices
Brittingham & Hixon Lumber Co.
 West Milwaukee St. Both Phones.

F. W. MILLER CHIROPRACTOR
 (CHIROPRACTOR)
 Desires to announce that he has opened offices in the Jackman Bldg., Suite 409-410. We do not Treat, Heal or Cure Disease but by expert Spinal Adjustment.
REMOVE THE CAUSE
 The cause of your disease is pressure on the nerves at the Spine and when pressure is removed, Nature builds up the weakened tissues and Health Follows.
 You are invited to call and let us explain this wonderful science in detail.
Investigation Costs You Nothing
 Lady attendants.
FRENCH, ENGLISH AND GERMAN SPOKEN.
 Office hours: 10-12 A. M. 2-5 P. M.

The feller who flatters and fawn. Give me no "jolly good fellowship" guys. Who fly when the bank roll is gone.
 Give me the man who has lit all the bumps—
 The feller who's traveled with truth;
 Who knows what true pain and true anguish can mean.
 And if not discouraged forsooth,
 He may be a roughneck and cuss just a bit.
 And he some uncouth in his tone;
 But after the judgment I've got an idee.
 You'll find him quite close to the throne.

CLARA MORRIS SIXTY-FIVE YEARS OF AGE TODAY
 (SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
 Tenkers, N. Y., March 17.—Messages of greeting and bouquets of flowers were received in abundance today by Miss Clara Morris, who is remembered by the older generation of playgoers as one of the most noted emotional actresses on the American stage. This was Miss Morris' sixty-fifth birthday anniversary. She lives in a great, old-fashioned house in Riverside avenue in this city. She is now totally blind and for two years she has been confined to her bed by illness. Despite her misfortune the former actress keeps intimately in touch with the affairs of the world. Interested in all subjects, she has her mother, who is ninety years old, read magazine and newspaper articles to her during the day and when during the night she cannot sleep, her husband, Dr. P. C. Harriott, reads to her. When not listening to the reading of her husband and mother, Miss Morris spends much of her time dictating short stories for the magazines.

FORMER OSHKOSH ALDERMAN VICTIM OF APPENDICITIS
 (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
 Oshkosh, March 17.—Michael Stopper, former alderman and overseer of the poor died Sunday at St. Joseph's hospital from appendicitis. L. O. Tumery, a pioneer lumber dealer, and Mrs. Norma Blake, 52 years old, are also dead here.

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

Purify Hood's Sarsaparilla
 Your blood and build up your strength by taking a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla.
 The Spring Medicine. Get it today.

APOLLO THEATRE
 Featuring High Class Vaudeville
 Matinee every afternoon at 2:30, 10c. Two performances each evening at 7:30 and 9:15, 10c and 20c.

NEW PROGRAM
 This special program lasts through Wednesday Evening.
ELONA—In Cowboy and Indian Character Songs, in costume.
ARTHUR TURRELL—Musical Comedian—very good.
VEALDE TRIO, Comedy and novelty feature. The trio perform some exceedingly difficult feats in tumbling. A force of trained dogs in a Loop the Loop, an act the like of which has never before been seen in Janesville.
THE KINETOSCOPE showing two of the best obtainable Motion Pictures.

Tipton Lumber Company
 "Dustless Coal."

OVER DRESSING
 My Blue Serge 2-piece Suit at $20.50 is a winner. Nothing is more disgusting than a n OVER-DRESSED MAN. Let me GUIDE you.

ALLEN
 50 So. Main.
 "The All Wool Store."
 A Little far down, but the walk saves you money.
 15 to 35, most pay 25 to 30.
 March 17.

Look for the name VITAGRAPH
 It stands for the best in motion pictures.

PICTURES
 "THE MEXICAN SPY," a two-reel Lubin feature, will be shown at the Lyric Wednesday.
 "PATHE'S WEEKLY," the most popular film in America, is booked at the Lyric Wednesday.

The Lyric offers additional to its program Friday a very interesting film showing maneuvers of the submarines of the Swedish Navy.

The announcement of the showing of the Vitagraph English production of "THE PICKWICK PAPERS" will be awaited with interest by lovers of Dickens.

Parcels Post Maps Free
 By paying your back subscription to the Daily Gazette and one year in advance, you can have one of the Parcels Post Maps free. If you are paid in advance, by paying another year the map is yours. Map is priced at $1.00, to Gazette patrons, 25c, or 35c by mail.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS
 To The Ladies:
 When in The Big Store if you are not waited on promptly and pleasantly, tell us. If our goods do not correspond with our Advertisements, tell us. If everything is not satisfactory we want to know it. We cannot see everything and we know you can aid us. The reason we ask you to tell us if anything is unsatisfactory is that we desire to remedy it. Telling someone else will not help you and may hurt us. Telling us will enable us to help ourselves and thus help you. We cannot correct a shortcoming until we know of it. We will regard it as a personal favor if you aid us in bettering The Big Store by telling us of any shortcomings.

Phagocyte No. 15
 "I wouldn't last long if people didn't come back."

OVER DRESSING
 My Blue Serge 2-piece Suit at $20.50 is a winner. Nothing is more disgusting than a n OVER-DRESSED MAN. Let me GUIDE you.

ALLEN
 50 So. Main.
 "The All Wool Store."
 A Little far down, but the walk saves you money.
 15 to 35, most pay 25 to 30.
 March 17.

Look for the name VITAGRAPH
 It stands for the best in motion pictures.

PICTURES
 "THE MEXICAN SPY," a two-reel Lubin feature, will be shown at the Lyric Wednesday.
 "PATHE'S WEEKLY," the most popular film in America, is booked at the Lyric Wednesday.

The Lyric offers additional to its program Friday a very interesting film showing maneuvers of the submarines of the Swedish Navy.

The announcement of the showing of the Vitagraph English production of "THE PICKWICK PAPERS" will be awaited with interest by lovers of Dickens.

Parcels Post Maps Free
 By paying your back subscription to the Daily Gazette and one year in advance, you can have one of the Parcels Post Maps free. If you are paid in advance, by paying another year the map is yours. Map is priced at $1.00, to Gazette patrons, 25c, or 35c by mail.

Phagocyte No. 15
 "I wouldn't last long if people didn't come back."

OVER DRESSING
 My Blue Serge 2-piece Suit at $20.50 is a winner. Nothing is more disgusting than a n OVER-DRESSED MAN. Let me GUIDE you.

ALLEN
 50 So. Main.
 "The All Wool Store."
 A Little far down, but the walk saves you money.
 15 to 35, most pay 25 to 30.
 March 17.

Look for the name VITAGRAPH
 It stands for the best in motion pictures.

PICTURES
 "THE MEXICAN SPY," a two-reel Lubin feature, will be shown at the Lyric Wednesday.
 "PATHE'S WEEKLY," the most popular film in America, is booked at the Lyric Wednesday.

The Lyric offers additional to its program Friday a very interesting film showing maneuvers of the submarines of the Swedish Navy.

The announcement of the showing of the Vitagraph English production of "THE PICKWICK PAPERS" will be awaited with interest by lovers of Dickens.

Parcels Post Maps Free
 By paying your back subscription to the Daily Gazette and one year in advance, you can have one of the Parcels Post Maps free. If you are paid in advance, by paying another year the map is yours. Map is priced at $1.00, to Gazette patrons, 25c, or 35c by mail.

Phagocyte No. 15
 "I wouldn't last long if people didn't come back."

OVER DRESSING
 My Blue Serge 2-piece Suit at $20.50 is a winner. Nothing is more disgusting than a n OVER-DRESSED MAN. Let me GUIDE you.

ALLEN
 50 So. Main.
 "The All Wool Store."
 A Little far down, but the walk saves you money.
 15 to 35, most pay 25 to 30.
 March 17.

Never Again the Old Way.

If you have ever had a tooth filled, you know what the drilling has meant to your nerves. The pain was simply unendurable.

Multitudes allow their teeth to simply rot in their mouth, rather than go to the dentist again.

To all such I announce Freedom. Absolute Freedom from Pain.

My method will cost you a little more on each tooth filled, because I myself had to pay a large amount of money for the outfit.

But once you have tried it, you will say:

"Never again will I have a tooth touched without Dr. Richards' painless method."

DR. F. T. RICHARDS
PAINLESS DENTIST.
Office Over Hall & Sayles.

This Institution

Has faithfully served its patrons for nearly fifty-eight years, and at all times its affairs have been conducted in such a manner as to inspire the utmost confidence on the part of its customers. In addition to being prudent and conservative in our management, we are progressive in our methods and courteous and accommodating to our customer.

We invite your business.

The First National Bank.

Established 1855.

Patek's Mattcote.

The subdued mellow effect of Patek's Mattcote increases the light in a room at least one-third.

Sole agents

Bloedel & Rice

The Main Street Painters
35 So. Main St.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED—Factory girl or laundry girl who wishes to change to position in store. Best wages in city. Short hours. "M. H." care Gazette. 3-17-3t.

FOR SALE—One sheep shearing machine, complete with grinder and horse clipping attachments. One 14-in. walking plow; one 4 1/2 H.P. gas engine and wood saw. L. H. Howe, Phone 1305, Footville, Wis. 3-17-3t.

WANTED—To rent, about April 1st, heated room, furnished or unfurnished, within four blocks from Post office. Also board, if possible. Address A. C. E. care Gazette. 3-17-3t.

FOR RENT—Nice warm, light, furnished room, bath with hot water, close in, 223 S. Main St. 3-17-3t.

WANTED—Up-to-date sewing. Enquire 333 N. First St. New phone, 788 blue. 3-17-3t.

FOR SALE—Corn stalks in stack. Shurtleff Company. 3-17-3t.

FOR RENT—Lower flat, 105 S. Main St. Rent $12.00. Upper flat, 106 S. Main St. Rent $11.00. Possession April 1. Shurtleff Company. 3-17-3t.

LOST—Scottie Collie, extra large, about 2 years old. Answers to name of "Scotty." Broken tusk on lower jaw. Return to 1215 Businell, Beloit, or telephone Beloit, 1135, and receive $5 reward. 3-17-3t.

HIS LITTLE ESSAY.

MAY COST HIM TOGA

J. Hamilton Lewis.

J. Hamilton Lewis, Chicago lawyer and politician, and until lately, not prominently mentioned as the next United States senator from Illinois, is said to have made himself politically impossible to President-elect Wilson by the political essay he recently wrote in which he called Wilson an ingrate. Illinois politicians friendly to Wilson are casting about for some other candidate more in harmony with the incoming administration.

For Protection Against Autos.

That pedestrians on rural roads wear white patches on the back of their clothing at night and that the backs of wagons be painted white as a protection against automobiles has been seriously proposed in England.

Parcel Post Maps Free with a year's subscription to the Daily Gazette. Value of the map, $1.00. They are on sale at Baker's Drug Store and Gazette office to Gazette patrons, also at 25c, or 35c by mail.

DRAW A JURY TODAY IN TRIAL OF BELDEN

YOUNG MAN CHARGED WITH SECOND DEGREE MURDER FACES TRIAL IN CIRCUIT COURT.

CAREFUL EXAMINATION

Of Witnesses Drawn on Case by Counsel for Prosecution and the Defense—One Juror is Excused.

Up to a 1 1/2 hour this afternoon counsel in the case of the state of Wisconsin against Louis Belden, charged with second degree murder against the person of Edward P. Ryan, were engaged in examining prospective jurors. At three o'clock three of the twelve men originally drawn had been stricken from the list and three others had been examined in addition. These were W. T. Scofield, C. S. Crow and W. W. Swingle.

One juror, H. T. Harper of the town of Plymouth, was excused by the court on the ground that he might be prejudiced owing to the fact that he had long been intimately acquainted with Ryan's parents.

Examination of the jurors for the state was conducted by District Attorney Stanley G. Dunwiddie, and for the defense by Attorney J. J. Cunningham, who was appointed by Judge Grimm to defend Belden when the young man made his request last week for a trial at this term of court. The jurors were carefully questioned in regard to the case, what they knew about it and whether they had formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. The acquaintance of any of the jurors with the dead man or any of his parents was also carefully considered.

As soon as the case was opened Mr. Cunningham had Belden brought to the front of the room and given a chair at his side at the table for the counsel. Mr. Cunningham then called forward the mother and sister of the defendant, Mrs. Carrie Belden and Miss Cora Belden, and gave them seats near him. Belden sat quietly without signs of emotion throughout the tedious examination of jurors. On several occasions his attorney talked with him earnestly.

Although the work of securing a jury was proceeding slowly, it was not expected that there would be any trouble in securing twelve men from the present panel of thirty-four. All the jurors questioned stated that they had formed no opinions from the accounts of the alleged murder which had appeared in the newspapers.

Those drawn as jurors were C. O. Onsgard, C. E. Brooks, W. F. Noble, H. P. Power, Henry Kemp, C. H. Hoffman, C. B. Ellis, E. C. Wilkins, S. M. Graves, W. T. Scofield, C. S. Crow and W. W. Swingle. But three names were stricken from the panel; they were those of J. M. Fox, Fred Schaller, and C. E. O'Gegg. A recess was taken at 3:30 o'clock and those not drawn to serve as jurors in this case were paid and dismissed.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Lakota Club Meeting: The regular weekly meeting of the Lakota club will be held at the club rooms at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

Mystic Workers: A meeting of the Mystic Workers will be held at their regular meeting place tomorrow evening. It will be followed by a social for members.

Students Take Trip: Glen Fisher, who is attending the university, left this morning with about twenty-five university students and four instructors for Chicago where they will visit the terminal of the C. & N. W. Railway company and spend the afternoon at a meeting of the American Railway Engineers to be held at the Coliseum. From Chicago they will go to Gary, Ind., where they will inspect the American Bridge Works and will visit the Portland Cement Works at Buffington, Ind., returning on Friday.

No Registration: There will be no registration tomorrow in consequence of there being no primary election. The next and last opportunity for registration will be on Tuesday, March 25, one week before election.

Ordinance Printed: One thousand copies of City Ordinance No. 11, relating to weights and measures, have just been printed, and in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance, Sealer Walter Helms will leave a copy with each person for whom he tests weights or scales.

Marriage License: A marriage license was issued today to George W. Coxhead of Edgerton and Mary Johnson of the town of Fulton. The prospective groom is over seventy years of age.

Banquet March 26: The Union Brotherhood banquet which will be held at the Congregational church will be on the evening of March 26. The date is again mentioned owing to some misunderstanding in previous announcements.

No Decision: Arguments in the case of Michael Buob versus John L. Fisher were completed by Edward L. Carpenter and Charles Pierce, the respective attorney of the parties to the suit, on Saturday afternoon, but Judge Fitch reserved the announcement of his decision until tomorrow. The suit is an action for replevin of a note for $400 alleged to have been given Mr. Buob by William Lawyer, and which was left in the possession of Mr. Fisher.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY MOB WRECKS TEN CENT STORE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Red Bank, N. J., March 17.—A five and ten cent store was wrecked today by an angry mob that objected to St. Patrick's day souvenirs displayed in the window, declaring that the display ridiculed things which they considered sacred. The parish priest first called on the proprietor and demanded the removal of the souvenirs. Two hundred persons gathered outside the store and when the priest reported his mission had failed the mob rushed in, tore the offending articles from windows and counters and trampled them under foot. Counters were upset and other goods destroyed. The owners of the store declare they will prosecute the raiders.

FINISH INSPECTION AT DOUGLAS SCHOOL

City Visiting Nurse Will Start Work at Adams or Grant School Tomorrow—Some Opposition.

Medical inspection of the Douglas school pupils has been completed by the City Visiting Nurse who tomorrow will begin a similar inspection at the Grant or Adams school, these two being the only ones not yet visited. The inspection of these will be completed in about three weeks or less, after which the nurse will tabulate the cases she has discovered for vacation work. She will also visit the city schools regularly once a week, note the conditions of those who are receiving treatment at her direction, and investigate the cases referred to her by the teachers. More parents of children attending the Douglas school requested that their children not be examined than at any other the nurse has visited. She did not examine the eyes of the youngest children as they have not yet learned the letters for reading is now taught by the phonetic method. A number of pupils were found in such condition that the nurse advised their removal from school until they were in better health.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cutler left this morning for an extended trip to the east.

Mrs. Edward Wittwer of Monticello and Mrs. John Falter are spending a few days in Chicago.

Miss Annie Hughes, who has been visiting friends in the city returned to her home in Chicago today.

P. H. Hayes of Chadron, Neb., who has been visiting in the city, left for his home Sunday evening.

Miss Rhoda Emily was a week end visitor at her home in Orfordville.

Mrs. George McKee is spending the day in Chicago.

Miss Irene Sands, of Madison, was an over Sunday visitor with Janesville friends.

Frank Blodgett is a business visitor in Chicago.

A. A. was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Strickler, 452 North Bluff street, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Warren, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Bacon spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bacon in Stoughton.

Mrs. John Grubb left yesterday for Reedsburg, Wis., to visit for a few days.

Mrs. Jennie Munn of Belvidere, Ill., is visiting at the home of her son, Dr. Wayne Munn.

Miss Mary Davies of Milton avenue was an over Sunday visitor in Port Atkinson.

Mrs. George Hessionauer of 604 South Jackson street, entertained a group of friends at her home Saturday evening. The occasion was pleasantly spent in cards and Mrs. Kelly of Beloit and Albert Jordan were the prize winners. Luncheon was served after the evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Russell entertained Miss Beulah Ott, of Milwaukee, over Sunday.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, met Saturday evening with Mrs. Dedrick, on North Washington street.

Miss Mae Stevens of Madison, was an over Sunday guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stevens on Pearl street.

The Misses Eva and Wanda Schroeder of Madison street, were Beloit visitors on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kneff are entertaining Mrs. R. Kneff of Freeport, Ill.

Mrs. J. M. Ross and her nephew, Theodore Hankins, spent Sunday in Edgerton.

F. Hohn and W. E. Clinton of Janesville, were in Milwaukee on Saturday. James McGiffin spent Sunday in Chicago.

Miss Verna Benson is entertaining the Samy Monday club this afternoon at her home on South Jackson street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman of the Court street flat, spent Sunday in Madison.

Mrs. William Kemmerling was an over Sunday visitor at her home in Milton Junction.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Van Kirk left Sunday afternoon for a few days' stay in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Wise of Rockford, were in the city over Sunday. They were guests of George Wise.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Doty of Chicago, are visiting relatives in the city.

Mrs. E. L. Woods has returned from a few days' visit in Darlington, where she was called by the illness of her mother.

Mrs. John Nichols spent Sunday in Beloit, the guest of her son.

Miss Julia Lovejoy returned on Saturday from an extended eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Colvin returned Saturday from a few days' visit in Milwaukee.

Captain Davidson of Bay City, who has been quite ill in this city at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. R. Osborn, is much improved and left for the south this morning.

Miss Alice Johnson of Milwaukee, is the guest of Mrs. John Manning, of Milton avenue.

Miss Louise Warren is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. Alice Helden of Milwaukee.

Will McNeil has gone to Portage on a business trip.

Mrs. C. S. Blackman of Evansville, was in the city on Saturday.

PAYS HEAVY PENALTY FOR MAKING TROUBLE

Lee Hammes Fined $25 and Costs for Creating Disturbance and Using Obscene Language.

Twenty-five dollars and costs was the penalty imposed on Lee Hammes who pleaded guilty in the municipal court this morning to a violation of Section 3, Chapter 21 of the city ordinances prohibiting disorderly practices. Hammes was arrested last night in the vicinity of a West Milwaukee street pool hall where he was using abusive and obscene language very freely and creating a "scene." He had no explanation to make of his conduct except to say that he "must have been in an intoxicated condition, and judging by the punishment meted out to him Judge Fitch considered the excuse an aggravation. When asked where he obtained his liquor, Hammes said he drank it out of a bottle presented to him by a stranger, but the police are disposed to believe that he knows more about it than he is willing to reveal. He was offered an alternative of twenty-seven days in jail in case he did not pay his fine, but a brother offered to secure the money needed.

This disorder is the second to occur at or near a pool room within a few days. A fight occurred in one two or three evenings ago. The trouble-maker, who pretended to be a subscription agent for an agricultural journal, had the city before him, his identity became known, leaving his trunk behind him. It is not expected that he will return for it.

Two plain drunks were arraigned in court today. George Larson an old offender, who has been spending several nights at the police station lodgings, was sent to jail for five days, and James McCall, an Evansville man paid a fine of $4 and costs.

CANDIDATES FILED NOMINATION PAPERS

Aspirants For County Judgeship Answer The Requirements of the Law.

Nomination papers were filed on Saturday by the four aspirants for county judgeship. John Cunningham recorded papers with 1619 signatures, Judge Charles Fitch one with 921 names, Fred C. Burpee had 502 and Edward Ryan 436. The contest for this office has become most heated and the outcome will be watched with interest.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

The kindly Sunshine Circle will meet with Mrs. A. L. Burdick, 907 St. Mary's avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

Ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold an Easter sale of fancy articles, aprons and home baking on Wednesday, March 19, beginning at one o'clock at the church parlors.

Elks meeting Tuesday evening. Initiation will be held and full attendance is desired.

A special meeting of the Woman's Club, of the Congregational church, will be held on Tuesday afternoon, at 2:30 p. m. at the church.

Parcel Post Maps Free with a year's subscription to the Daily Gazette. Value of the map, $1.00. They are on sale at Baker's Drug Store and Gazette office to Gazette patrons, also at 25c, or 35c by mail.

Lost

Yesterday, Spitz dog. Return 301 N. Academy St. or 220 W. Milwaukee St. Suitable Reward.

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

Steer Plate Beef Lb. 10c

Home Made Pig Pork Sausage Lb. 15c

Fresh Home Made Sauer Kraut qt. 5c
2 lbs. bulk Mince Meat . . . 25c
Rutabagas, Red Beets, Parsnips and Carrots, lb. . . . 2c
Yellow Onions, per bu. . . . 65c
3 head Cabbage . . . . . 10c
3 Richelieu Soups . . . . . 25c
Asparagus Tips, can . . . . . 25c
Richelieu Spinach, can . . . . . 20c
Imported Mushrooms, can 35c
Strictly Fresh Eggs, dozen 20c
Pure Country Sorghum, can 15c
Maple and Cane Syrup, quart bottle . . . . . 25c
Monarch Pure Maple Syrup, qt. bottle . . . . . 50c
Fancy White Comb Honey, lb. . . . . 35c
Afton Buckwheat, sk. . . . . 35c
Blodgett's and Uncle Jerry's Pancake Flour, pkg. . . . . 10c
3 Badger State Pancake Flour at . . . . . 25c
4 Voigt's Cream Flakes . . . . . 25c
4 Quaker Corn Flakes . . . . . 25c
Fin's Malted Wheat, pkg. . . . . 15c
Snowflake, Best Patent Flour, sk. . . . . $1.25

ROESLING BROS.

GROCERIES AND MEATS
6 Phones—All 128.

LOCAL DELEGATION TO ATTEND HEARING

Anti-Tuberculosis Association Has Not Yet Determined Where to Place It—Sanitary Bubbler.

A number of Janesville women who have been prominent in the campaign of the past fall, will go to Madison on Wednesday, March 19, to be present at the public hearing which will be given on the bill which provided that the suffrage amendment shall be again submitted to the voters at the election in 1914. The hearing is set for two o'clock in the assembly chamber. A large delegation of women from all over the state will be present to urge the suffrage cause. Representatives of the anti-suffrage societies will also be present.

JANESVILLE PRIZE FOUNTAIN RECEIVED

The Janesville Anti-Tuberculosis association has just received the sanitary drinking fountain which it won as a prize in the competitive sale of Christmas seals. It stands about three and a half feet high, is constructed of metal throughout, and is equipped in every detail as to where it will be placed will be reached at a meeting of the directors of the local association to be held within a few days. At the present time no tentative locations have been proposed but the association desires to place the fountain where it will serve the largest number of people, and is open to suggestions.

Parcels Post Maps at Baker's

Parcels Post Maps can be secured at the Gazette branch office, Baker's Drug Store, free, by paying back subscription and a year in advance or paying another year if already paid in advance. Map price is $1.00. Sold to Gazette patrons, 25c, or by mail, 35c.

Fresh Vegetables

Full line Tues. A. M.
Fresh Cocoanuts, 7c, 10c.
5 Grape Fruit 25c.
Jumbo Roasted Peanuts, 12 1/2c lb.
Common Salted Peanuts 10c lb.
Jumbo Blanch Peanuts 35c lb.
White Clover Honey 25c.
Maple Syrup, 5c, 10c and 20c casks.

Boston Coffee 30c

It is a wonderfully rich, mellow, coffee. The only puzzle about it is the price.
Old Dutch Coffee, 35c; 3 lbs. $1.00.
Colonial Coffee, 40c lb.

Swiss Cheese 30c

Mild soft Penn. Cheese 25c
Nippy Elsie 25c.
Full Cream Brick 22c.
All kinds fancy Cheese.
Everett Flour $1.25 sk.
Whirlwind Flour $1.40 sk.
Sunburst Flour $1.45.
Eaco Flour, $1.55 sk.
Brooms, Brushes, Toilet Papers, Chloride of Lime, Sand Flights.
Swiss Silver Cream Silver Polish, 25c.

Dedrick Bros.

1 QT. JAR QUEEN OLIVES 35c.
1 QT. JAR EAGLE PEANUT BUTTER 35c.
JAR QUEEN OLIVES 25c.
JAR SWEET PICKLES 20c.
BEECHNUT PEANUT BUTTER 15c AND 25c JARS.
WHITE CLOVER HONEY, 25c LB.
E. C. CORN FLAKES 8c PKG.
LARGE HEAD CABBAGE 5c.
FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS 10c LB.

E. R. Winslow

24 N. MAIN 37 S. MAIN
Order From Either Store.

NAVAL STORES COMPANY TO SUSPEND OPERATION

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Savannah, Ga., March 17.—Announcement was made here today that the American Naval Stores Company will suspend operations. The company is being prosecuted by the government for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act.

To Whom It May Concern:

If you make more than 6% on your money over and above all cost and expense of loaning, looking after taxes and insurance and collecting interest we can be of no service to you.

If you net less than 6% or if you are too busy to check delinquent tax lists to see your security is not being sold for taxes or would like the prompt collection of interest attended to without any embarrassment to you we can be of service to you. Call and see our line of investments.

Gold-Stabeck Loan & Credit Co.

By W. O. Newhouse, Vice Pres. & Mgr. Janesville Office.

YOUNG FOLKS WAGE EARNERS BUSINESS MEN

Home Savings Banks LOANED FREE

We want to encourage the young folks with their small savings; the wage earners who are striving to buy a home; the business men who are saving surplus incomes as a competency for later years; all persons who are trying to accomplish something in life beyond their present condition.

ROCK COUNTY SAVINGS & TRUST CO.

Janesville, Wis.
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $55,000.00

Officers and Directors: F. H. Jackson, Pres.; A. P. Burnham, Vice Pres.; C. H. Weirick, Secretary; C. S. Jackson, Chairman.

Board of Directors: C. W. Jackson, Michael Hayes, A. Lawson, et al. Organized under the rigid Wisconsin Trust Company law.

Office with the Rock County National Bank.
Open Saturday evening from 7:15 to 8:30.

CANNED GOODS

Plymouth Rock Tomatoes, can . . . . . 12c
Monmouth Fancy Maine Corn, 2 cans . . . . . 25c
Idaho White Cherries, can . . . . . 25c
Idaho Black Cherries, can . . . . . 25c
Mammoth Olives, large jar . . . . . 25c

DRIED FRUITS

Fancy Evaporated Nectarines, lb. . . . . 10c
Peaches, extra quality, lb. . . . . 10c
Jumbo Silver Prunes, lb. . . . . 15c

PINEAPPLES

These are good size and we know will please you each . . . . . 20c

CHEESE TID BITS

The newest thing in Crackers. Be sure and give them a trial.

O. D. BATES

40 S. Main St. Both Phones

FARMERS ATTENTION

We will pay 20c for eggs in trade for a few days.

We want 200 Chickens, will pay highest market price.

We sell groceries and meats as reasonable as any cash store in the city, quality considered. Give us a trial and be convinced.

ROTHERMEL

GROCERIES AND MEATS

Fair Store

SALE CONTINUED FOR THIS WEEK.

Sale stops on either of these articles when goods of that kind on hand are sold out.

Four extra bargains in Canned Fish for Saturday.

20c can Best Red Salmon . . . 15c
1 can Pink Salmon, 10c, 3 for 25c
1 5c can Oil Sardines . . . 3c
1 10c can Mustard Sardines . . 6c
5 for . . . . . 25c
10c bottle good Catsup . . . 8c
1 pk. good Baldwin Apples . . 25c
1 5c can Milk, Pet brand . . . 4c
7 for . . . . . 25c
1 lb. Cooking Figs, good for sauce at . . . . . 5c
10c package Rolled Oats . . . 8c
15c package Corn Flakes . . . 10c
10c can Concentrated Lye . . . 5c
Eggs bought at the Fair Store are the best grade, doz. . . . 20c

EASTER SALE

SECOND FLOOR.

SHOES.
Women's $3.50 brown or black velvet button shoes, high toe, at $2.45.
Women's $3.50 patent colt, gun metal and vici kid button shoes, dome tip, military or low heels, at $2.45.
Men's $3.50 dress shoes in patent colt, gun metal or tan calf skin, button style, dressy lasts, at $2.45.
Men's $3.00 box calf or gun metal shoes, lace style, make good dress shoe or light work shoe at $1.95.
Boys' gun metal button shoes, 9 to 13 1/2, at $1.50; 1 to 6 1/2 at $1.95.
Boys' box calf school shoes, lace style, at $1.50.
Girls' tan calf-skin shoes, button style, at $1.75 a pair.
Girls' vici kid button shoes at $1.50 and $1.75 a pair.

BOY'S SUITS.

Boys' Norfolk suits with Knickerbocker knee pants, neat assortment of patterns, age 8 to 16 years, at $2.95 a suit.
Boys' double-breasted wool suits with Knickerbocker knee pants in browns and blues, age 8 to 16 years, at $2.45 a suit.
Little Boy's Elton suits in gray striped effect, age 3 to 8 years, at $1.95.
Boys' wool knee pants, regular 75c and $1.00 grade, age 4 to 17 years, at 50c a pair.

MEN'S HATS.

Men's soft hats in shades of brown, black and gray, in Pan Tourist, Fedora and Telescope shapes, $2.00 grade at $1.45; $1.50 grade at $1.25.
Men's soft hats in Fedora shape, in tan or black, at 95c.
Men's 75c Cowboy Hat at 59c.
Youths' hats in gray or brown, in Telescope shape, $1.00 value at 75c.
Boys' 75c grade in brown and black, Pan Tourist and Telescope shape, at 59c.
Boys' Caps, asst. colors, Golf style, at 25c.
Little Boys' Hats in navy blue or red, with black band, at 59c.

Fancy Navel Oranges, 20c Dozen.

Fresh Salsify, Celery, Lettuce, Peppers, Onions, Tomatoes.

Pure Maple Syrup and Sugar.

Strained Honey 25c can.

Fancy Picnic Ham, Bacon Boiled Ham, Dried Beef, Salt Pork.

A GENERAL ADVANCE FOR ALL LIVESTOCK

Hog Prices Reach a New High Mark and Cattle and Sheep Are Up Ten Cents.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Chicago, March 17.—There was a general advance in the prices for livestock this morning. Hogs reached a new high mark for the year with several loads selling at $9.25. The average prices ranged around $9. Receipts were about as expected at 10,000 head. Cattle and sheep prices were ten cents higher than last week. Trade continued brisk throughout the day until all receipts were disposed of. The price list follows:

Cattle—Receipts 17,000; market generally 10c higher; beefs 7.35@7.55; Texas steers 6.50@7.05; western steers 6.35@6.85; stockers and feeders 6.10@6.35; cows and heifers 3.50@4.10; calves 7.50@12.00.

Hogs—Receipts 30,000; market strong, 10c higher; light 8.90@9.25; mixed 8.70@9.15; heavy 8.50@9.07; rough 8.50@8.65; pigs 7.15@8.10; bulk of sales 8.90@9.10.

Sheep—Receipts 20,000; market strong, 10c higher; native 6.20@7.10; western 6.40@7.20; yearlings 7.25@8.35; lambs, native 8.10@9.10; western 8.10@9.10.

Butter—Steady; creameries 28@33 3/4.

Eggs—Higher; receipts 12,281 cases; case mark, cases included 15 1/2@19; ordinary, firsts 1 1/2@15; prime firsts 15 1/2@19.

Potatoes—Steady; receipts 87 cars; Wis. 42@50; Mich. 45@48; Minn. 43@48.

Poultry—Steady; turkeys, dressed 21; chickens, alive 10 1/2; springs, alive 16.

Wheat—May: Opening 88 1/4@88 3/4; high 88 3/4; low 88 1/4; closing 88 3/4. July: Opening 88 3/4@88 1/2; high 88 3/4; low 88 1/2; closing 88 3/4.

Corn—May: Opening 51 1/4@51 1/2; high 51 1/2; low 51 1/4; closing 51 1/2. July: Opening 52 1/2@53; high 52 1/2; low 52 1/4; closing 53 1/4.

Oats—May: Opening 32 1/4@32 1/2; high 32 1/2; low 32 1/4; closing 32 1/2. July: Opening 32 1/2@32 1/4; high 32 1/2; low 32 1/4; closing 32 1/2.

Rye—60@61 1/2.

Barley—10@65.

ELGIN BUTTER FIRM AT THIRTY-FOUR CENTS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Elgin, Ill., March 17.—Butter firm at 34 cents.

JANESVILLE WHOLESALE MARKET

Janesville, Wis., March 17, 1913.

Straw, Corn, Oats—Straw, $6 to $7; baled hay, $14 to $15; loose (small) $14; corn, $10@12; oats, 28c @32c; barley, 45c@50c for 50 lbs.; @32c; rye, 50c for 60 lbs.

Poultry—Hens, 16c; springs, 12c @13c; geese live, 1c; dressed, 14c; turkeys, dressed, 21c@22c; live, 17c.

Steers and Cows—$4.50@5.00.

Hogs—$7.50@8.50.

Feed—(Retail) Oil meal $1.75@1.80 per 100 lbs.; bran $1.20@1.25; standard middlings, $1.20; flour middlings, $1.30.

Janesville, Wis., March 17, 1913.

Vegetables—Potatoes, 15c pk; 50c bu; cabbage, 5c@7c hd; lettuce, 5c bu; carrots 2c; beets, 2c lb; onions 4c lb; peppers-green 5c; red 5c; June 5c; celery, 10c stalk; red cabbage, 3c lb; squash (hubbard) 15c; round radishes, bunches, 5c; pieplant, 15c@20c; rutabagas, 2c lb; tomatoes, 12c@20c; lb; cranberries, 10c lb; sweet potatoes 6c lb; strawberries, 55c@60c quart.

Fruit—Oranges, 25c@40c doz; bananas, 15c@20c; apples (different kinds) peck and barrel, average $3.75 barrel; Baldwin, 40 cents pk; Spies, 50c pk; Swowe, 25c pk; lemons, 40c dozen; grapefruit, 7c @10c, 3 for 25c; pineapples, 20c apiece.

Butter—Creamery 38c@40c; dairy 35c; eggs, 20c@22c; cheese 22c@25c; oleomargarine, 20c@22c lb; lard 15c @18c lb.

Nuts—English walnut, 20c lb; black walnuts, 35c pk; hickory nuts, 5c@6c lb; Brazil nuts, 15c; peanuts, 10c@15c lb; popcorn, 5c@6c.

Oysters—45c qt.

Fish—Pike 16c; trout, 16c; salmon 16c@18c; pickerel, 15c; halibut, 15c @15c.

SPENT HONEYMOON IN JAIL; MAY SUE FOR DAMAGES

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Atlanta, Ga., March 17.—Harley Ballies may attempt to collect damages from the United States for having to spend his honeymoon in jail. Ballies and his bride spent six months in a cell because they were wanted as witnesses in a murder trial. Being ignorant of the ways of the law they were unable to take steps toward regaining their liberty and with all the stoms of North Georgia mountaineers they scuffled down to housekeeping behind the bars of Fulton tower. During a portion of their imprisonment they were confined in the death cell as no other quarters were available. The release of the prisoners came after their case was given publicity in the local newspapers. It became known today that Ballies is considering taking legal steps to obtain redress for his enforced idleness and the humiliation suffered by himself and his 17-year-old bride.

Travel

ALL ABOUT WHERE TO GO HOW TO GO AND WHEN TO GO AT THE GAZETTE TRAVEL BUREAU.

Folders, Time Tables, Official Guide.

ALL INFORMATION FREE FOR THE ASKING.

GAZETTE OFFICE.

Today's Edgerton News

Edgerton, Wisconsin, March 17.—Visitors at the Carlton, Saturday: Ernest Catch, Chicago; W. L. Olds, Hal Halverson, Madison; O. E. Skinner, City; J. A. Phillips, Decatur; Geo. Danous, Mat Miller, Milwaukee; S. M. Halverson, Geo. M. Mann, Stoughton; E. S. Wheeler, Omer Amundson, Reilott; Clifford Halverson, Carl Knutson, Fish Cullen, Dan Harrington, J. W. Rothoff, Mrs. Henry Aiken, Madison; Frank Omer, Stoughton. Visitors at the Carlton Sunday: F. W. Coon and family, Edgerton; Mrs. Charles Bent, J. J. Cullen and wife, C. E. Shannon and wife, City; Wm. Snear, Dodgeville, N. Y.

Chilous Boutelle of Plattville, is visiting his parents in this city. Geo. Ogden and family, Andrew McIntosh and wife and James Ogden of this city attended the funeral of Mrs. Will Gilbert at Fort Atkinson Saturday.

Mrs. J. Grassman of Watertown, is visiting at the home of Tom Ellingson.

Mrs. W. Heddles of Madison, arrived Saturday for a brief stay with relatives. She was accompanied by a nurse who will care for grandma Heddles who is confined to her bed by illness.

Mrs. Belle Walker and daughter, Ethelwyn of Stoughton, will visit at the home of M. E. Nelson the following week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Huxtable visited relatives at Janesville over Sunday.

Mrs. Ferrell Davis, who has been visiting her sister at Rockford, Ill., is expected home today.

Mrs. J. Wood of Wauwatosa, is visiting her son Lyman Wood and wife of this city.

The Edgerton high school basketball five was defeated at Waubesa Friday night by a score of 21 to 30. The boys returned on Saturday night.

August Schumacher is reported as being ill. Henry Morrissey was an over Sunday visitor.

Miss Alice Morrissey of Janesville, visited her parents over Sunday.

Frank Pose of Madison, visited over Sunday at the home of Robert Maves.

Following are the members of the confirmation class which was confirmed at the German Lutheran church yesterday: Elsie Kruenberg, Anna Knoll, Irene Dalman, Emma Schumacher, Clara Fuchs, Lulu Schoenfeldt, Huldie Becker, Margaret Blesman, Emilie Lemke, Carl Kepp, Albert Klomp, Gerhard Giese, Oscar Sommerfeld, Mermer Gries, Arthur Witt, Paul Dorn, Harold Bartz, Alvin Voight, Herbert Bricek, Edward Spitzer, Albert Parash, Harold Kruger, John Ties, Otto Sell, Carl Spilman. Rev. Spilman performed the ceremony.

After the ceremony was over they all had their picture taken at Bardeen's. The Easter vacation begins this week in the public schools.

Roger Mooney is home from St. Viator college, for his Easter vacation.

Miss Sherille Shumway was an over Sunday visitor at the home of her parents.

Rev. Geo. W. Coggins of Chicago, was a visitor here over Sunday.

Miss Hazel Underhill is a Janesville visitor today.

C. W. Coxhead is in Janesville on business today.

Nels Evenson is a visitor in Janesville today.

Omer Amundson of Beloit, was an over Sunday caller here.

Dan Harrington of Stoughton, is a local caller here today.

George Hain is a Janesville caller today.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Binky of Yankton, South Dakota, are visiting at the home of his nephew, K. P. Binky of this city.

Ben Neumann is a Janesville business visitor today.

Fred La Plant is a Janesville caller today.

Henry Ebbott is a Janesville visitor today.

Misses Nina and Eva Park or Beloit are spending this week with local friends.

Mrs. Anna Case and son of Janesville was a visitor here the latter part of the week.

Miss Anna Stevens was a Janesville caller Saturday.

Will Liston of Edgerton is spending a few days in town.

W. Kelly of Madison was a local caller Saturday.

J. K. McPherson of Milwaukee spent several days of last week in town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Winston entertained the members of the Camping Club to-morrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aitman entertained at dinner Sunday the families of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas.

The Pythian Sisters enjoy their monthly picnic supper next Tuesday evening to which all members are requested to come and bring something toward the following menu:

Canned Salmon Rolls Coffee Cake

The Reading Circle of the Congregational church meet tonight in the church parlors.

Miss Fanny Gabriel and brother, Brooks, entertained friends at Sunday dinner the event being the former's birthday.

Carl Gillies recently entertained a number of friends in honor of Miss Inman of Janesville.

Personal News.

Miss Alice Kuecke of Reedsburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Richard Hunt.

Mrs. Amelia Truett spent the week end with her sister in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mike Baumgartner of Brooklyn was a caller here Saturday.

Miss Doris Khusmeyer spent the week end at her parental home in Magnolia.

Dan Williams of Janesville is spending a few days in town.

Miss Mary Casey of Janesville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyne.

Mrs. M. C. Tamm spent Saturday with friends in Janesville.

Will Casey of Fellows was a local caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cain and two children of Caledonia, spent Sunday at Oliver Brown's.

Dave Andrews of Caledonia was a local visitor Saturday.

Miss Ethel Wolcott of Magnolia is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Claude Harrison.

John Troon of Magnolia was a business caller here Saturday.

Lee Barnard of Janesville called on friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Blackman was a Janesville visitor Saturday.

Glen Ismay of Black Earth is the guest of local friends.

Misses Nina and Eva Park or Beloit are spending this week with local friends.

Mrs. Anna Case and son of Janesville was a visitor here the latter part of the week.

Miss Anna Stevens was a Janesville caller Saturday.

Will Liston of Edgerton is spending a few days in town.

W. Kelly of Madison was a local caller Saturday.

J. K. McPherson of Milwaukee spent several days of last week in town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Winston entertained the members of the Camping Club to-morrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aitman entertained at dinner Sunday the families of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas.

The Pythian Sisters enjoy their monthly picnic supper next Tuesday evening to which all members are requested to come and bring something toward the following menu:

Canned Salmon Rolls Coffee Cake

The Reading Circle of the Congregational church meet tonight in the church parlors.

Miss Fanny Gabriel and brother, Brooks, entertained friends at Sunday dinner the event being the former's birthday.

Carl Gillies recently entertained a number of friends in honor of Miss Inman of Janesville.

Personal News.

Miss Alice Kuecke of Reedsburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Richard Hunt.

Mrs. Amelia Truett spent the week end with her sister in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mike Baumgartner of Brooklyn was a caller here Saturday.

Miss Doris Khusmeyer spent the week end at her parental home in Magnolia.

Dan Williams of Janesville is spending a few days in town.

Miss Mary Casey of Janesville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyne.

Mrs. M. C. Tamm spent Saturday with friends in Janesville.

Will Casey of Fellows was a local caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cain and two children of Caledonia, spent Sunday at Oliver Brown's.

Dave Andrews of Caledonia was a local visitor Saturday.

Miss Ethel Wolcott of Magnolia is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Claude Harrison.

John Troon of Magnolia was a business caller here Saturday.

Lee Barnard of Janesville called on friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Blackman was a Janesville visitor Saturday.

Glen Ismay of Black Earth is the guest of local friends.

Misses Nina and Eva Park or Beloit are spending this week with local friends.

Mrs. Anna Case and son of Janesville was a visitor here the latter part of the week.

Miss Anna Stevens was a Janesville caller Saturday.

Will Liston of Edgerton is spending a few days in town.

W. Kelly of Madison was a local caller Saturday.

J. K. McPherson of Milwaukee spent several days of last week in town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Winston entertained the members of the Camping Club to-morrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aitman entertained at dinner Sunday the families of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas.

The Pythian Sisters enjoy their monthly picnic supper next Tuesday evening to which all members are requested to come and bring something toward the following menu:

Canned Salmon Rolls Coffee Cake

The Reading Circle of the Congregational church meet tonight in the church parlors.

Miss Fanny Gabriel and brother, Brooks, entertained friends at Sunday dinner the event being the former's birthday.

Carl Gillies recently entertained a number of friends in honor of Miss Inman of Janesville.

Personal News.

Miss Alice Kuecke of Reedsburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Richard Hunt.

Mrs. Amelia Truett spent the week end with her sister in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mike Baumgartner of Brooklyn was a caller here Saturday.

Miss Doris Khusmeyer spent the week end at her parental home in Magnolia.

Dan Williams of Janesville is spending a few days in town.

Miss Mary Casey of Janesville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyne.

Mrs. M. C. Tamm spent Saturday with friends in Janesville.

Will Casey of Fellows was a local caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cain and two children of Caledonia, spent Sunday at Oliver Brown's.

Dave Andrews of Caledonia was a local visitor Saturday.

Miss Ethel Wolcott of Magnolia is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Claude Harrison.

John Troon of Magnolia was a business caller here Saturday.

Lee Barnard of Janesville called on friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Blackman was a Janesville visitor Saturday.

Glen Ismay of Black Earth is the guest of local friends.

Misses Nina and Eva Park or Beloit are spending this week with local friends.

Mrs. Anna Case and son of Janesville was a visitor here the latter part of the week.

Miss Anna Stevens was a Janesville caller Saturday.

Will Liston of Edgerton is spending a few days in town.

W. Kelly of Madison was a local caller Saturday.

J. K. McPherson of Milwaukee spent several days of last week in town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Winston entertained the members of the Camping Club to-morrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aitman entertained at dinner Sunday the families of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas.

The Pythian Sisters enjoy their monthly picnic supper next Tuesday evening to which all members are requested to come and bring something toward the following menu:

Canned Salmon Rolls Coffee Cake

The Reading Circle of the Congregational church meet tonight in the church parlors.

Miss Fanny Gabriel and brother, Brooks, entertained friends at Sunday dinner the event being the former's birthday.

Carl Gillies recently entertained a number of friends in honor of Miss Inman of Janesville.

Personal News.

Miss Alice Kuecke of Reedsburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Richard Hunt.

Mrs. Amelia Truett spent the week end with her sister in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mike Baumgartner of Brooklyn was a caller here Saturday.

Miss Doris Khusmeyer spent the week end at her parental home in Magnolia.

Dan Williams of Janesville is spending a few days in town.

Miss Mary Casey of Janesville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyne.

Mrs. M. C. Tamm spent Saturday with friends in Janesville.

Will Casey of Fellows was a local caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cain and two children of Caledonia, spent Sunday at Oliver Brown's.

Dave Andrews of Caledonia was a local visitor Saturday.

Miss Ethel Wolcott of Magnolia is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Claude Harrison.

John Troon of Magnolia was a business caller here Saturday.

Lee Barnard of Janesville called on friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Blackman was a Janesville visitor Saturday.

Glen Ismay of Black Earth is the guest of local friends.

Misses Nina and Eva Park or Beloit are spending this week with local friends.

Mrs. Anna Case and son of Janesville was a visitor here the latter part of the week.

Miss Anna Stevens was a Janesville caller Saturday.

Will Liston of Edgerton is spending a few days in town.

W. Kelly of Madison was a local caller Saturday.

J. K. McPherson of Milwaukee spent several days of last week in town.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Winston entertained the members of the Camping Club to-morrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aitman entertained at dinner Sunday the families of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas.

The Pythian Sisters enjoy their monthly picnic supper next Tuesday evening to which all members are requested to come and bring something toward the following menu:

Canned Salmon Rolls Coffee Cake

The Reading Circle of the Congregational church meet tonight in the church parlors.

Miss Fanny Gabriel and brother, Brooks, entertained friends at Sunday dinner the event being the former's birthday.

Carl Gillies recently entertained a number of friends in honor of Miss Inman of Janesville.

Personal News.

Miss Alice Kuecke of Reedsburg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Richard Hunt.

Mrs. Amelia Truett spent the week end with her sister in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mike Baumgartner of Brooklyn was a caller here Saturday.

Miss Doris Khusmeyer spent the week end at her parental home in Magnolia.

Dan Williams of Janesville is spending a few days in town.

Miss Mary Casey of Janesville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyne.

Mrs. M. C. Tamm spent Saturday with friends in Janesville.

Will Casey of Fellows was a local caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cain and two children of Caledonia, spent Sunday at Oliver Brown's.

Dave Andrews of Caledonia was a local visitor Saturday.

Miss Ethel Wolcott of Magnolia is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Claude Harrison.

John Troon of Magnolia was a business caller here Saturday.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat
BY RUTH CAMERON

THE NARROWNESS OF SOME CULTURED FOLKS.
IGNORANCE and narrow-mindedness are two conditions that one naturally associates.

Whereas education and narrow-mindedness are conditions that one expects to find at exactly opposite poles.

And yet it seems to me that a great many well educated people, cultured in the way they like to call themselves, are surprisingly narrow in their intelligence and their sympathies.

Their conception of the world is a place chiefly peopled by folks exactly like themselves. Their theories of life are built on that conception. Their conversation is usually uttered in a peculiar accent almost as far from pure English as the most vulgar dialect. They abhor slang, but they have a slang of their own, consisting of words and phrases used in peculiar ways, which the ordinary ear would not appreciate. They would find it almost impossible to talk interestingly to anyone out of their particular class.

The first question such people usually ask of a new acquaintance is, "What is your college?" They use the names of the latest high-brow books as symbols to conjure with, and if you have not read them they turn a fishy eye of cold surprise upon you. They seldom read newspapers, and pride themselves upon this as upon abstinence from an inviolable mirror of real, pulsating life does not appeal to them. They prefer their life diluted and strained through some ultra-conservative magazine of comment. They are like the Lady of Shalott, and instead of looking directly at the world outside of her window, they are abnormal.

Now the world is full of many kinds of people, and after all, they are the most important thing in it. Therefore to act as if there were only one kind, to be able to understand and take an interest in only one kind, is the quintessence of narrowness.

Your education along the lines of theory and book learning, your culture in an artistic or literary sense, may be as broad as you please, but if you cannot realize that there are many kinds of people besides your kind, and that they are worth knowing about and associating with, you are still very narrow-minded.

As I have said elsewhere, there is an intellectual snobbery as well as a snobbery of wealth or birth, and since by its very nature it ought to be self-deceiving, I think intellectual snobbery is the least excusable of all.

CHATS WITH THINKING WOMEN
by Barbara Boyd

The Saint of the Emerald Isle

It always seems to me that God must have enjoyed creating the Irish, when planning this race, and chosen with especial relish the virtues. He gave them—their good-nature, their big-heartedness, their ready humor, their keen intellect, their gentility that is like sunshine. Perhaps that they might rejoice, as they trod the stony path ahead of them.

And today, little pots of shamrock, and green flags, and saucy little paper-mache pigs, and miniature harps, and other emblems of the Emerald Isle are reminding those of us who are not of this race, that the sons and daughters of Erin, the world over, are celebrating. And though Saint Patrick may be no saint of ours, and even though we may have little regard for saints, nevertheless, we will all be the better for dwelling a little on some of the acts of this worthy gentleman.

One thing that is told of him is that he drove the snakes from Ireland. A person who can evict snakes, is surely worthy of our homage; especially that of the feminine part of creation. It is only to be regretted that he was not on hand in the Garden of Eden. How much misery he might have saved the world, had he only performed his little snake charming act at that stage!

But seriously, is there not a thought here for us all, whether we are today wearing a shamrock in our button hole or not?

Can we not emulate Saint Patrick today and continue his good work of driving out serpents? For the serpent is but the symbol of evil. And without doubt, there are plenty of serpents to be driven out of ourselves, and out of the domain over which we rule.

Saint Patrick's work is by no means ended. The warfare against evil is always to be waged. And whether we belong to his nationality or not, we can pin a shamrock on our breast as a symbol that we are enlisted in the good fight he fought.

For whether we be born on Irish soil or American, we are all "brothers under the skin"; and we are all enlisted in the good fight to make this world a better place to live in.

So let's take a fresh start today in this world-old warfare against the serpents; and let the little emblem of Ireland be the symbol arousing us to the fight.

Barbara Boyd

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

For The Kiddies.
The boys are playing marbles now. Mothers, do you know it is dangerous for your boys sitting on the cold damp ground at this time of year? Try to to prevent sickness than to cure it. Teach the children to be self-reliant. Let them do hard things. Tell them you are sure they can do them, and encourage them while they are working. If there are things they do not understand, show them how, but let them do the work themselves. Then notice how happy they are after the work is finished.

Our own little boy, just beginning to creep, tumble, and get lots of bumps, made me think of this remedy: Rub a small piece of butter over the part that has been bumped, there will be no swelling or bumps, and it will take the soreness out.

Teach the little folks to clean their shoes before coming into the house in a muddy time, by example; that is, by the parents and older children always cleaning theirs. Also teach them to put cap and coat on the hook when they take them off. It will save the mothers greatly and when the children are men and women they will bless you for the habit of neatness.

Charity Box.
Take an old trunk or large box and call it your Charity Box.

Into it put the articles with which you have finished—pictures, magazines, books, scrap-books, pretty cards and all sorts of wearing apparel; pieces of silk, cloth, cotton and lace for dolls; envelopes with foreign stamps, etc.

Every once in a while go through it and dispose of its articles to orphan asylums, hospitals, etc. Then, when you are called on for contributions to rummage sales, all you have to do is go to the box and you will find something and you won't have to "rummage" around the house.

Handy Rack.
Always having so much trouble to find my paring knives and potato forks, my husband made me a rack from a piece of board with a cleat nailed to it.

The cleat has little "blocks" under each end, so that the knives can be easily slipped through.

On the bottom, he put some small hooks, on which I can hang my strainers and pancake turners.

It hangs behind the range, and when one is cooking, it saves a great many steps.

The board is 9 by 12½ inches thick.

Delicious Swedish Dishes.
Chicken Stew, or Paprika. Select small spring chickens, about 2½ pounds. Cut into small pieces and put on to boil about three quarts of water. Take one-half pound chopped meat, mix it with one egg, onion, pepper, garlic and salt, form into very small balls; then take two onions, chop up fine and mix with three tablespoons flour.

Fry in grease, until brown; put this and the meat balls in stew at the same time. Season with salt and paprika to taste. Serve with mashed potatoes.

Stuffed Green Peppers. Select one dozen sweet peppers. If the peppers are stiff and shiny you will be sure to have them sweet. Let them soak in hot water about one-half hour. (Remove insides before you soak them.) Take two pounds of chopped meat, mix with two eggs, onion, salt and pepper and a little rice. Remove peppers from water and stuff with meat.

Cover with cold water and put on to boil. Slice in cabbage, add salt and a few English whole peppers, one-half cup of sugar and vinegar. When half done put them in stove well covered and let them roast until done. Serve hot.

The Kitchen Cabinet

ET ere we part, one lesson I can leave you for every day—

Do noble things, not dream of them all day long; And so make life, death and that vast forever.

One grand sweet song.—Kingsley.

CAKE MAKING.

The evolution of cake making has changed the old, tedious process of creaming butter, adding the sugar gradually or creaming both together. Now, a good cake may be made in half the time it took to cream the butter and sugar. Putting all the ingredients together as follows: Break in the eggs, add the sugar, warmed butter, a little flour, then all of the milk, and flour with the baking powder, the beating coming after all the mixing is done. Beat well for five minutes with a large Dover egg beater, and turn into the pan. Water may be used instead of milk, with scarcely any difference in the quality of the cake. The butter must not be melted to destroy the grain, but simply softened enough so that it will be readily mixed.

The old-fashioned one, two, three, four cake is the mother of all the butter cakes. Sponge cake is the foundation for jelly rolls, lady fingers, angel and sunshine cakes.

An even teaspoonful of baking powder to a cup of flour is sufficient for all cakes with eggs. An excess of baking powder not only makes a coarse-grained cake but one which dries out very quickly.

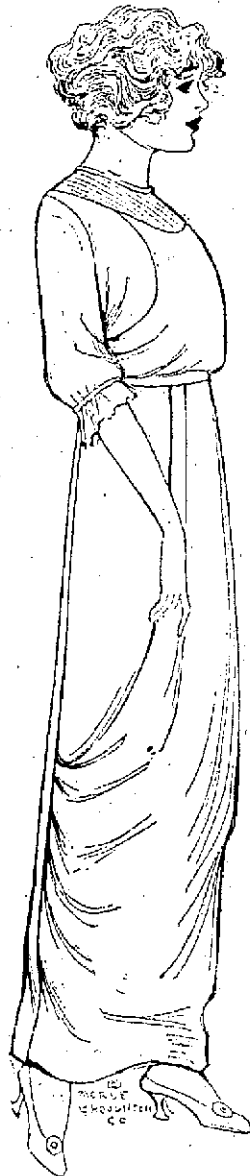

The shape in which the cake is to be baked should decide the amount of flour to be used. Layer cakes or small cakes baked in gem pans require less flour than loaf cakes.

Sunrise Cake.—Take a half cup of butter, add a cup of sugar to the softened butter, the yolks of six eggs, a little of half a cup of milk, two cups of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Mix and then stir in the rest of the milk, beating well with the egg beater until light and foamy. Flavor with half a teaspoonful each of lemon and vanilla.

Nellie Maxwell.

"Oh, Mr. Titterwad, do you know, I passed by a candy store yesterday, and actually didn't go in." "How unlikable you—I thought you said once you invariably turned in?" "Why, don't you remember? You were with me."

PRACTICAL FROCK OF GREEN CASHMERE

Here is a practical frock of bottle green cashmere. The front section of the waist is draped toward the back and terminates beneath the back panel. This drapery is repeated on the skirt, the fullness being also caught beneath the back panel. The short sleeves are puffed and held in by a narrow strip of the material. A plait is laid in at either side of the front panel of the skirt. Yoke of finely tucked white net.

Domestic Science DEPARTMENT

CONDUCTED BY Mrs. Alice Gitchell Kirk

Housekeeping is analogous to business; money must be spent to produce certain results and the expense account must be watched to make it bear proper relation to the health and comfort derived from the expenditure. It is in attention to details that a housewife must have a system based on a solid foundation of common sense, experience, experiments and investigation. Then there will be no friction whether there be one maid kept or twenty, or whether the mistress herself is parlor maid, cook or waitress.

It is as much the duty of the mistress to be trained to adjust her domestic problems, as for the maid to know how to execute the orders she receives. Almost any young woman of ordinary intelligence and willing disposition can be taught the principles of housekeeping, if the teacher has as much patience as the maid, in every house there are two brains; hear and forbear, and they need daily exercise.

When your maid is trained she will want an increase in salary, but that is to be expected and you will be able to enjoy months, perhaps years of comfort in return for your efforts, and if she leaves you will have the pleasure that comes from helping others which is its own reward. Much is told and written of the ingratitude of hired women while little is said of the hundreds of faithful servants who have been many years with the same employers, doing their work faithfully and using their best efforts to make the family comfortable. In training a maid you will do best to start at the beginning, as if she catered.

had no standard whatever, probably she will never have seen many of the utensils you use daily in your kitchen; rightly taught that they are real helps, she will use them carefully. She will learn much from observation as she helps you with the details of your work and you can teach in the order that circumstances make easiest.

The first thing to begin with is boiling. Many people who have cooked for years in a haphazard fashion, do not know when water is really boiling. For this lesson coffee-making furnishes a good demonstration, then vegetables, then soup-making, beginning with vegetable soups first. By this time the beginner will have grasped the fact that boiling water helps to retain juices and extracts and cool water softens fibers and you can explain the secrets of the frying pan; when she has learned that hot fat bursts starch grains and forms an impervious coating that the fat cannot penetrate, simple meat sauces and gravies may be made. This should be accomplished in two weeks, though cooking, which looks so easy, is slowly taught.

Having learned to make sauces and to cook the meat in the simplest ways, croquette making, scalloped dishes, creamed meat and fish entrees will prove easy.

Pastery and cake and dessert making will have to be taught gradually, beginning with simplest batters. As for breakfast cakes and gums and biscuits, bread making should not be attempted for several weeks unless the maid is especially apt. After the first few weeks a cook book may be given and should prove a great help, if it is a tested one and reliable. However, the inability to use recipes does not imply that one cannot learn to cook. A stout colored girl who could neither read nor write comes to mind. She was very observant, and, though eighteen before she entered a "big house" kitchen, totally untrained, learned in six months the rudiments of every day cooking and table service and is now a well-to-do caterer.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will white shanes or slippers be worn this summer? CONSTANT READER.

Yes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—I am a boy of 18 and want to go into some kind of business. What would be the best to start in on a capital of about $100? I have had no experience in any kind of business. (2)—Do you think my handwriting is good for schooling.

(1)—You cannot start much of a business on $100. As I do not know your qualifications, or the opportunities of your locality, I cannot very well advise you. I know of one young man who started in business by making buttered popcorn and sweet popcorn balls, and selling them. Now he is a rich man. You might try something like that.

(2)—It is fair. There is room for improvement, but if you have had no help you have done pretty well.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—I have no steady fellow, but would like to know if it is wrong for a fellow to kiss the girl he is going with or for her to kiss him? (2)—If a girl goes to a party with her brother, is it all right to come home with a fellow who never went with before? (3)—When at a dance, is it wrong to go outdoors with a fellow and sit in the buggy?

GRACE.

(1)—When you really fall in love with a man, how will you like to have him kiss you? (2)—If your brother is willing and the young man is all right, I see no harm in it. (3)—It isn't very good conduct.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—Is it proper for ladies to take those knitted handbags to church? (2)—I have a married woman friend. There has been lots of talk about her and a man. I believe it because I have seen myself. She wants me to be just the same as before, but my husband forbids me to have anything to do with her. Please advise me. ELOUISE.

(1)—Yes. Take them anywhere you would use a regular handbag. (2)—Tell her that if she cares more for the man than she does for respectability and her good old friends, you will have to live her up just like all the other respectable people will.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1)—I am a girl of 18 and very much in love with two young men. They seem to think a great deal of me. I have been going with one of them four years and lately met the other. The former wants to marry me, but I had rather marry the latter if I am fortunate enough. How can I win him? (2)—How can I produce flesh? Am only 100 lbs.—I have good health, but would like to weigh 115. (3)—How can I make a party dress suitable for spring and what kind of goods would suit best?

(1)—There is no guaranteed recipe for winning love. A girl can only be sweet and lovable and make herself as interesting as possible. If the man loves her, he will let her know it, and if he doesn't she can't make him. (2)—Genuine flesh with cream and sugar is a fattener; also bananas and cream. Eat plenty of nourishing food, take plenty of sleep and don't saddle foundation material, would be fashionable. Trim with embroidery or artificial flowers. The drapery may be in pinnies or flounces or just caught up at one side. Have it simple in appearance.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and very much in love with a young man who has asked me to marry him. My folks do not want me to go with him because they didn't like his people. Am I old enough to marry?

Wait at least until you are 18. Then if you and your young man still love each other, and if he is good and respectable and able to support a wife, the quarrel between his parents and yours should not affect you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and very much in love with a young man who has asked me to marry him. My folks do not want me to go with him because they didn't like his people. Am I old enough to marry?

Wait at least until you are 18. Then if you and your young man still love each other, and if he is good and respectable and able to support a wife, the quarrel between his parents and yours should not affect you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and very much in love with a young man who has asked me to marry him. My folks do not want me to go with him because they didn't like his people. Am I old enough to marry?

Wait at least until you are 18. Then if you and your young man still love each other, and if he is good and respectable and able to support a wife, the quarrel between his parents and yours should not affect you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and very much in love with a young man who has asked me to marry him. My folks do not want me to go with him because they didn't like his people. Am I old enough to marry?

Wait at least until you are 18. Then if you and your young man still love each other, and if he is good and respectable and able to support a wife, the quarrel between his parents and yours should not affect you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and very much in love with a young man who has asked me to marry him. My folks do not want me to go with him because they didn't like his people. Am I old enough to marry?

Wait at least until you are 18. Then if you and your young man still love each other, and if he is good and respectable and able to support a wife, the quarrel between his parents and yours should not affect you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17 and very much in love with a young man who has asked me to marry him. My folks do not want me to go with him because they didn't like his people. Am I old enough to marry?

Wait at least until you are 18. Then if you and your young man still love each other, and if he is good and respectable and able to support a wife, the quarrel between his parents and yours should not affect you.

DRESSY GOWN OF PINK CHARMEUSE

Here is a dressy spring gown of pink charmeuse and draped skirt, with black belt and small yoke of white chiffon.

UNCLE WALT
The Poet Philosopher
Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams
BY WALT MASON

He's won a proud and lustrous fame in pastime rough and rude; it's his misfortune that his name recalls some breakfast food. He is a man of mighty form, he has an eye of fire; his soul is brave, his heart is warm; he's one we should admire; he seems heroic when some gink around the mat he jerks; yet, seeing him, we always think of someone's biscuit works. Oh, giant of the wrestling ring, ZYBSCKO!—bones and bones, why don't you can that whole wheat name, and call yourself Ker-jones? You surely rank among the best, you've got so many goats; and yet, alas, you still suggest baked rice and shredded outs. You say that you can beat that scamp, Frank Gotch—you can, perhaps! But how could we endure a clump, who's name spells finger snap? You are a man of force and brawn, of nerve and brain and pith; if you had but been christ-

TRAFFIC IN FLESH AND BLOOD
It has been said that hard work for a weak sickly woman is traffic in flesh and blood. It makes little difference whether the field of work is at home or elsewhere; but if every woman in the world who goes about her work with backache, headache, nervousness, bearing down pains and blues, would remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound remedies the cause of such troubles, world would become a pleasure and life worth living. Advertisement.

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

412 W. Milw. St.

Geo. W. Bresee

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

412 W. Milw. St.

Geo. W. Bresee

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

412 W. Milw. St.

Geo. W. Bresee

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

ened John, and wore the surname Smith, to admiration we'd give vent, and harangue you oftsoons, but how can we applaud a gent whose name means toasted prunes?

Friendship. Friendship is the gift of the gods, and the most precious gift to man.—Disraeli.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY
Take no risks, for some mischance threatens you; also avoid visionary schemes. You will be annoyed by letters or by the acts of simple-minded people.

Those born today will have attractive personalities and some real friends among those attracted. These will prove their worth in time of trouble. Naturally too generous to be saving, these children should be taught thrift.

17 MARCH

Every home needs Sani-Flush for the health and comfort of those in it. It deodorizes, disinfects, cleans, and makes the toilet bowl twice as clean.

Sani-Flush
Cleans Water-Closet Bowls
Makes them clean and white as new. Cannot hurt the plumbing.

25c a can
At your grocer or druggist.

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD

Restored to Health by Vinol—A Letter to Mothers.

Anxious mothers: often wonder why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have so little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following letter.

J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn., says: "My little daughter ever since her birth had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry. Several months ago we commenced to give her Vinol. I immediately noted an improvement in her health and appearance, and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim."

This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cod's livers, and strength creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol.

Vinol will build up, and strengthen delicate children, old people, and the weak, run-down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails. Smith Drug Co., Janesville, Wis.

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

412 W. Milw. St.

Geo. W. Bresee

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

412 W. Milw. St.

Geo. W. Bresee

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

412 W. Milw. St.

Geo. W. Bresee

BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS IN BEAUTIFUL GRANITES

You'll find a very large assortment of marbles and granites in a large variety of designs here. The smallest marker and the largest granite column are given representation—no job is too large nor none too small but what it gets our entire attention. You'll make no mistake in calling here when you intend to purchase that monument. A good time to call is right now, if you intend having one this spring. Starting to cut it now we can have it placed for you on Memorial Day.

"You Know the Quality of Our Work."

DECLARE INTERURBAN GIVES GOOD SERVICE

Railroad Commission Upholds Company in Beloit Case—Beloit Power House Unaffected.

What is in effect a vindication for the Rockford & Interurban company in its troubles with Beloit residents along the river and north of the city is the purpose of a decision handed down by the railroad commission of Wisconsin.

Commissioner John Harlow, who heard the case in Beloit last fall, writing the opinion.

The commission finds:

(a) That the Rockford Electric company is properly equipped to supply power to the Rockford & Interurban company, with the exception that more careful voltage regulation on the 25-cycle supply is needed.

(b) That the operation of the Beloit power house is not at this time considered necessary.

(c) That the transmission lines should be carefully maintained and a ground wire for lightning protection installed and tested out.

(d) That the requirements for cars in the evening rush hour north from Beloit cannot be definitely determined until the summer season opens and the suburban traffic assumes its normal volume.

A further investigation of the service to Yost's park will be made when the summer season opens.

The case against the interurban was heard in the Beloit circuit chambers last September. It arose out of complaints of rival residents that the lines were easily tripped and that the service was very poor.

At the hearing General Manager Sparks, C. C. Shockey and other interurban officials testified before Commissioner Harlow explaining what the road had to contend with, while a number of river road residents presented their grievances.

The chief cause of complaint was the removal of the power house from Beloit, which the company contended was in the interest of economy and efficiency, but which citizens felt had seriously crippled the service north of the city.

BARKER'S CORNERS

Barker's Corners, March 14.—Miss M. Havins returned last week from a two weeks visit with relatives and friends in Chicago.

Mrs. E. Taylor of Chicago and Elsie Taylor Madison were Sunday visitors at the home of S. Alverson.

Burt Ingle of Chippewa Falls is visiting at the home Glen Flieger.

Mrs. H. Hemmingsway and little son have been confined to their home with la grippe.

Shoemaker Brothers were Chicago visitors the first of the week.

T. Kneeland and S. Alverson attended an auction at Newville Thursday.

Joseph Raynor of Afton spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. F. McDermodt.

A large crowd attended Wm. Kennedy's auction Tuesday.

Emma Ingle of Janesville is spending a week at Charles Davis'.

TOWN LINE

Town Line, March 14.—Mrs. Geo. Cole and sons Fred and Roy attended the funeral of Mrs. Cole's sister, Mrs. Anna Hancock, which was held at Delavan, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walters entertained Mr. Dobson of Beloit at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Carls and children formerly of Rockford have moved to their new home a mile east of the Power's farm on the telephone road. Mrs. Carls is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Powers, and the family will be a welcome addition to the neighborhood.

Roy Cole, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Evansville spent a few hours Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eddy entertained Mrs. Albert DeLoft and son Otto and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eddy and family Sunday.

Miss Nora Lee of Hanover is visiting her cousin Miss Jessie Walters.

Miss Florence Sims of Chicago is visiting Miss Evelyn Hallett. Miss Sims used to live in this vicinity.

Mrs. Mary Kellogg who has been seriously sick is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Campbell and two daughters were entertained at dinner Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walters and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Simpson for supper. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell leave Saturday night for California where they expect to make their home.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES

THE USHER.

(By Howard L. Rann.)

THE usher is an omniscient functionary who can always tell by looking at people just where they want to sit. If they do not care to sit there, it is no fault of the usher's and he does not allow it to change any of his plans.

The most dexterous and composed form of usher extant is the church usher. His chief mission is to keep restless, foot-loose visitors out of the pews.

This is a delicate task and requires the tact of a diplomat united with bulldog courage and tenacity. It is a trying moment in an usher's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

er's life when a deaf stranger enters the church and insists upon climbing into a pew which one of the pillars pays $4 a month for. This results in an animated conversation, starting in a seductive pianissimo and winding up in a half-raising crescendo, the drift of which can be easily caught by everybody from the basement up.

The church usher is also required to pass the collection plate and wait for people who wish to break up a dime in small fragments. There are several other people who pass the collection plate, also, some from force of habit and others because they left their small change in their other trousers. After an usher has taken the collection for a few years he knows whom to tackle when it is time to raise money for the Christmas tree.

The theater usher is a person who was born without any sense of location. His favorite pastime is to walk people down the center aisle, locate them in somebody's else's seats and then drag them out into the fifth row of the second gallery in the middle of the first act. After a man has been snaked down into the orchestra circle in a sack suit and stood around on one foot while the usher tried to add up the row, seat and number; and then steered down into the wrong section, he will be glad to back out and get where he can throw long, cutting words at ushers and the art of ushering generally.

MUST TAKE A STAND FOR NOBLE PURPOSE

High Ideals Enforced by Courage and Resolution Secure Great Reforms Says Dr. Beaton in Sunday Address.

"The man or woman of today must stand for something otherwise their lives are a failure." This statement was the keynote of Rev. Beaton's sermon Sunday morning on "What I Stand For in Life" at the Congregational church. That a man must be endowed with some firm belief or conviction in order that he might be able to express to the world some beneficial idea was a further thought.

Great reformers of all ages have not been men of wealth or political power but in the majority of cases from the ranks of the common men and women who become firmly entrenched in the idea of right and wrong and who hold to their convictions in spite of hard opposition. Jesus himself was crucified because of his belief. He stood for something and his belief remained unshaken in spite of death.

Rev. Beaton also verified his facts by the reforms of modern times and showed that the rights of man were gained because someone took a stand and fought for it.

"We believe, therefore we speak." Indifference, subtle poison of the intellect and paralyzer of the mind, is the main cause of any person's failure. To succeed, one must fight with all possible force and fight for the right side. Religion is intended to express itself; free speech is the outcome of many years of hard struggle and the modern age has the opportunity to take advantage of it and make known their ideas along certain lines.

"The true Christian ought to stand for the execution of law and to stand by it and fight with all possible energy so as it improves the social standing of the people. Rules and regulations have been a part of our daily life and have been essential to the moral, social benefit of humankind. Laws, not necessarily those on the statute books, but those that decide right and wrong and have come down to be observed in the greater number of instances, even to the modern age. Law in the broadest sense is the essence of good government and the unwritten ones which give our customs and morals are not to be despised. Every man and woman whose ideal is Jesus should aid in their proper execution. No man's personal idea of law should stand in the way of right.

"To stand for justice and fight for the right is the second thing that should be a conviction of every man who stands for human betterment, equal opportunities for all, justice of mankind whether from a political or financial standpoint. Graft which has been prevalent through all ages should be an object of abhorrence to Christian people.

"To fight with a righteous spirit against vice which is dangerous to public welfare, to fight against graft, should be a fact which every man should aid in. In the fight against vice which is becoming nation-wide the spirit of God, which is righteousness, should be the prevailing factor in the success of this worthy movement. For any man to share in the most contemptible feature of the modern business. Every Christian has this duty to perform toward his fellowmen to voice his opinion against that which is not righteous.

Conviction is a necessity of the mind. A man or woman must have something to stand for and if their beliefs are firm should fight for them in face of opposition. The spirit of Jesus is ideal and all should be guided by what he stood and died for. It is the privilege of everyone to voice his or her opinion and to stand for that which is right, that which will tend to civic betterment would mean the most important step in the betterment of fellowmen. Success in one's life is the obtaining or carrying out of principles and ideas that will prove an uplift to man.

Members of Pearl Lodge held attendance banquet Friday evening.

Pearl Lodge No. 84, Knights of Pythias, held its contest banquet Friday evening. The eighty-six members present were entertained after a four course banquet by a well balanced program and music. Following is the menu and program:

Menu: Cream of Tomato Soup, Celery, Salted Almonds, Olives, Fish, Sauce Hollandaise, Red Snapper, Meats, Fillet of Beef, Escalloped Potatoes, Cabbage Salad, Ice Cream, Coffee, Cake.

Program: The Good of the Order, Dr. G. L. Hunt, Brief History of 84, F. K. Vance, The Member Who Never Attends, When No. 54 Stands, E. H. Cole, The Collector, Wm. Hahn, Prophecies for No. 84, L. J. Stair, How I Became a Knight, Dr. Sutherland, Male Quartette.

Orchestra—Gerald Green, violin; F. Dedrick, cornet; J. R. Foster, flute; R. Hartman, trombone; W. Breyvogel, drums; Miss Ella Stanz, piano. Mrs. W. L. Geier left on Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Baker at Rockville, Ill.

Wm. Osborne of Beloit was here last night to attend the banquet of the Knights of Pythias.

Miss Tressie Pfisterer went to Rockford Friday for a few days visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipley of Cross Plains are visiting with Brodhead friends. Mr. Shipley attended the banquet last evening.

Louis Kammerer was a passenger to Chicago Friday.

James Briggs of Lancaster is home for a few days to visit his family and attend the banquet.

The early birders of spring, robins, blue birds, meadow larks and blackbirds are here and are caught in another winter today.

The various churches of the city are preparing for special Easter services.

H. G. Schwartz of Redfield, So. Dakota, is spending a few days in Brodhead with old friends.

AFTON

Afton, March 14.—Miss Bosworth of Beloit will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday in place of her father, who is pastor. Rev. Bosworth is unable to come to Afton because of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of Beloit were callers at the home of Frank Mercer Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Martin also attended the funeral of Mrs. Mercer Tuesday afternoon.

Marie Brinkman is recovering from an attack of the grippe.

Mrs. Lizzie Marie is not as well this week. Dr. Keithley of Beloit was called to attend her. Her sister, Mrs. Eddy of Rockton is staying with her at present.

In spite of the very bad weather Thursday evening over fifty gathered at Brinkman's hall to enjoy the free supper and entertainment which the Afton Anti-Horse Thigh Association gave for its members and their families. Quite a program had been planned but several numbers had to be omitted as those who were to give them were unable to be present. Miss Ruth Humphrey of Janesville gave a reading and recitation in her usual pleasing manner. Mr. J. B. Humphrey gave a talk. James and Andrew Finley furnished music. Dancing was indulged in after the supper and program, by those who cared to take part and continued until midnight. The oyster supper, which was prepared by Tom Knight, left nothing to be desired in the line of a sale which struck the hall about 10 o'clock nearly caused a panic. The wind was very severe for a few moments and thoughts of a cyclone filled the minds of all.

Superintendent O. D. Antisdel and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey and daughter Ruth were down from Janesville to attend the social.

CLINTON

Clinton, March 15.—Brick is being hauled for the new Terwilliger and Anderson garage and work will be commenced as soon as weather will permit, and rushed to completion.

Some of our very heaviest tax payers are heartily in favor of bonding the village for funds to build the new city hall. Naturally, if any opposition develops it would seem that the heaviest tax payers would be the ones to object. So if they do not it will carry by a large majority.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Congregational church met yesterday noon at the home of Mrs. D. M. Phillips. Each lady brought some one article of food, she excels in cooking therefore, the dinner was very bountiful and of excellent quality. After dinner a very interesting program was given which was very interesting and instructive.

Mrs. Emaline L. C. Hatch was in Rockford yesterday.

Mrs. Frederick Ransbeck Helmer spent today in Janesville.

A. Harara is sick with the grippe at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Foley.

One of the most disgraceful things about our village is the lack of a walk on the Northwestern R. R. side of Main street. From their freight depot to the depot these muddy spring days it is next to impossible to get along there on account of that dirty filthy strip, and the bulk of travel to and from the depot is on that side.

J. H. Greene and Son made another large shipment of cows Thursday night. There were 30 head in the shipment.

W. H. Cheesman is ill and compelled to lay off from work.

Contractor Deehammer of Beloit has secured the contract to build the garage. He is the contractor who built the new state bank building, which is right, that which will tend to civic betterment would mean the most important step in the betterment of fellowmen. Success in one's life is the obtaining or carrying out of principles and ideas that will prove an uplift to man.

Members of Pearl Lodge held attendance banquet Friday evening.

Pearl Lodge No. 84, Knights of Pythias, held its contest banquet Friday evening. The eighty-six members present were entertained after a four course banquet by a well balanced program and music. Following is the menu and program:

Menu: Cream of Tomato Soup, Celery, Salted Almonds, Olives, Fish, Sauce Hollandaise, Red Snapper, Meats, Fillet of Beef, Escalloped Potatoes, Cabbage Salad, Ice Cream, Coffee, Cake.

Program: The Good of the Order, Dr. G. L. Hunt, Brief History of 84, F. K. Vance, The Member Who Never Attends, When No. 54 Stands, E. H. Cole, The Collector, Wm. Hahn, Prophecies for No. 84, L. J. Stair, How I Became a Knight, Dr. Sutherland, Male Quartette.

Orchestra—Gerald Green, violin; F. Dedrick, cornet; J. R. Foster, flute; R. Hartman, trombone; W. Breyvogel, drums; Miss Ella Stanz, piano. Mrs. W. L. Geier left on Friday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Baker at Rockville, Ill.

Wm. Osborne of Beloit was here last night to attend the banquet of the Knights of Pythias.

Miss Tressie Pfisterer went to Rockford Friday for a few days visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipley of Cross Plains are visiting with Brodhead friends. Mr. Shipley attended the banquet last evening.

Louis Kammerer was a passenger to Chicago Friday.

James Briggs of Lancaster is home for a few days to visit his family and attend the banquet.

The early birders of spring, robins, blue birds, meadow larks and blackbirds are here and are caught in another winter today.

The various churches of the city are preparing for special Easter services.

H. G. Schwartz of Redfield, So. Dakota, is spending a few days in Brodhead with old friends.

AFTON

Afton, March 14.—Miss Bosworth of Beloit will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday in place of her father, who is pastor. Rev. Bosworth is unable to come to Afton because of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of Beloit were callers at the home of Frank Mercer Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Martin also attended the funeral of Mrs. Mercer Tuesday afternoon.

Marie Brinkman is recovering from an attack of the grippe.

Mrs. Lizzie Marie is not as well this week. Dr. Keithley of Beloit was called to attend her. Her sister, Mrs. Eddy of Rockton is staying with her at present.

In spite of the very bad weather Thursday evening over fifty gathered at Brinkman's hall to enjoy the free supper and entertainment which the Afton Anti-Horse Thigh Association gave for its members and their families. Quite a program had been planned but several numbers had to be omitted as those who were to give them were unable to be present. Miss Ruth Humphrey of Janesville gave a reading and recitation in her usual pleasing manner. Mr. J. B. Humphrey gave a talk. James and Andrew Finley furnished music. Dancing was indulged in after the supper and program, by those who cared to take part and continued until midnight. The oyster supper, which was prepared by Tom Knight, left nothing to be desired in the line of a sale which struck the hall about 10 o'clock nearly caused a panic. The wind was very severe for a few moments and thoughts of a cyclone filled the minds of all.

Superintendent O. D. Antisdel and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Humphrey and daughter Ruth were down from Janesville to attend the social.

CLINTON

Clinton, March 15.—Brick is being hauled for the new Terwilliger and Anderson garage and work will be commenced as soon as weather will permit, and rushed to completion.

Some of our very heaviest tax payers are heartily in favor of bonding the village for funds to build the new city hall. Naturally, if any opposition develops it would seem that the heaviest tax payers would be the ones to object. So if they do not it will carry by a large majority.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Congregational church met yesterday noon at the home of Mrs. D. M. Phillips. Each lady brought some one article of food, she excels in cooking therefore, the dinner was very bountiful and of excellent quality. After dinner a very interesting program was given which was very interesting and instructive.

Mrs. Emaline L. C. Hatch was in Rockford yesterday.

Mrs. Frederick Ransbeck Helmer spent today in Janesville.

A. Harara is sick with the grippe at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Foley.

One of the most disgraceful things about our village is the lack of a walk on the Northwestern R. R. side of Main street. From their freight depot to the depot these muddy spring days it is next to impossible to get along there on account of that dirty filthy strip, and the bulk of travel to and from the depot is on that side.

J. H. Greene and Son made another large shipment of cows Thursday night. There were 30 head in the shipment.

W. H. Cheesman is ill and compelled to lay off from work.

Contractor Deehammer of Beloit has secured the contract to build the garage. He is the contractor who built the new state bank building, which is right, that which will tend to civic betterment would mean the most important step in the betterment of fellowmen. Success in one's life is the obtaining or carrying out of principles and ideas that will prove an uplift to man.

Members of Pearl Lodge held attendance banquet Friday evening.

Now You Can Get Beer Without That "SKUNKY" Taste!

All you have to do is to ask for Schlitz in Brown Bottles.

Sunlight grows hops, but spoils the beer.

"Beer acted upon by light soon takes up the very disagreeable, so-called 'light taste,' and also a repulsive, skunk-like odor," says no less an authority than the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology, the scientific authorities on the subject. "Beer so affected," they say, "is offensive to the palate of most consumers."

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives the best protection against light. The Brown Bottle protects Schlitz purity from the brewery to your glass.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Yes, as a fact, Ireland is nearer to Home rule than Father.

SHENANDOAH

A Stirring Story of Military Adventure and of a Strange Wartime Wooing, Founded on the Great Play of the Same Name

By BRONSON HOWARD AND HENRY TYRRELL

Illustrations From Actual Wartime Photographs by Brady

COPYRIGHT, 1912, BY G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS

"Don't judge him too hastily, John. May it not have been that it was only after another was dependent on him that the debts of a thoughtless spendthrift for he was nothing worse—drove him to desperation—to fraud, perhaps, will not believe crime."

"His wife shall be provided for—my lawyers have their instructions," replied the colonel curtly.

Mrs. Haverill stole softly out of the room, closing the door behind her, passed through the spacious galleries and down the broad winding stairs to the drawing room.

Everywhere, as Mrs. Haverill descended after her troubled interview with the colonel, the younger people were blissfully lounging or circulating about, still talking love and war.

They had a new and breezy accession to their ranks in the person of Jenny Buckthorn, U. S. A. She was the daughter of bluff old General Francis Buckthorn of the regular army and had been born and brought up in a military camp on the western plains.

"We're going to see active service now—sooner than you civilians seem to suspect," announced Jenny to an attentive group of listeners under the front portico. "Our boys are already under marching orders in Washington. Your General Beauregard is riding his high horse, it seems. Tell him for me that he'd better mind what he's doing or we'll have Heartsense down here after him."

"And who is Heartsense, pray?" inquired Gertrude Ellingham, who of late was developing an unwelcome interest in the federal military service.

"Heartsense? Brevet Captain Heartsense? Why, he is—one of my favorite cavalry officers. You'll hear about him."

"Yes—wherever Miss Buckthorn is for five minutes or so," whispered Bob Ellingham to Madeline West. "I know Heartsense. Not a bad fellow, but the biggest fool that was ever mislaid into the cavalry. You ought to hear what General Buckthorn says about him. Years ago a single evening at guard mount, and carries a scented lace handkerchief at cross country drill."

Gertrude Ellingham drew Jenny aside and asked her:

"How is it to have a sweetheart who is a soldier?"

"It's all right," answered Jenny promptly. "I wouldn't have a sweetheart who wasn't a soldier—a northern soldier, of course."

A flush of pleasure stole over Gertrude's face, then died out as suddenly as it had come.

Madeline West murmured to Robert Ellingham:

"It is only lately that I have realized there are northern soldiers and southern soldiers. I thought there was but one flag, and that you all served under it."

"That is what I was brought up to believe," replied the young lieutenant, "but some unaccountable change has come about."

"But it seems to me," interposed Kerchival West, "that the people of Charleston are taking an extraordinary interest in the preparations to bombard Fort Sumter. They look forward to such an event as if it were to be a gala day."

"It was at this juncture that Mrs. Haverill appeared. Before she had time to join the group Thornton hastened forward to meet her and said in a low, hurried tone:

"I must see you alone. I have important news for you."

"Are there any further tidings of Frank?" she inquired eagerly.

"Yes. We must not talk here—as they passed out together into the hall and paused at the foot of the stairs—Frank is here in Charleston."

The halls were decked and garlanded, ball dresses were laid out in readiness, and the young people were practicing minuets.

Toward twilight Kerchival West and Robert Ellingham strolled across the Battery park and along the old sea wall together.

"Bob, old comrade," the former began, "I have something I want to mention to you."

"Is it about Thornton?"

"It is about Mrs. Haverill, the colonel's wife."

"I understand—certainly, old boy—tell me all you know about it."

"Well, I was passing along the gallery of the second floor on my way to my room when I heard a muffled scream, then a lady's voice uttering violent, or, rather, hysterical, exclamations. The sounds came from one of the principal guest rooms, as I supposed, but whose I didn't know. Then the door was opened hastily, and Mrs. Haverill appeared, looking alarmingly ill or else terribly frightened and trembling with excitement."

"And was any one with her?"

"Not that I know of. I did have an impression—anyway, she recovered herself quickly after I had saturated my handkerchief with ammonia and eau de cologne and anything else that came to hand and given it to her. It would be all right, she said, and I was not to let such a foolish little incident disturb me on any account. Still—"

"So I thought. But it may have been only a mouse."

"Or it may have been Thornton. I was right," exclaimed Ellingham, striking the clutched fist of one hand into the palm of the other.

"Then, by heaven, Bob!"

"It mustn't get to the colonel. Leave Thornton to me."

"A pretext is all that is necessary. If you don't find it I will."

They shook hands in silence, then hurried in to dress.

Robert and Kerchival were as eager as any one for the dancing, yet they could not enter into the spirit of the affair and engage their partners (as a matter of fact, these latter, meaning chiefly Madeline and Gertrude, did not make an early appearance in the parlors) until their anxiety about Mrs. Haverill should be allayed. Would she find an excuse to avoid the ordeal of gaiety under the eyes of at least two persons who knew of the shock she had suffered but a few hours previously?

CHAPTER II
After the Ball.

NO such concern seemed to hold Edward Thornton back. He was here, there and everywhere, overacting if anything the role of "the life of the party" and never missing a dance.

Suddenly the colonel's beautiful wife, flanked by the two vivacious girls, and herself looking the picture of health and radiance in a specially modish ball gown of flowered satin, sailed into the salon like the star of a stage play. It was the official, formal opening of the ball.

"Do you know what Mrs. Pinckney says?" Gertrude Ellingham asked Lieutenant Kerchival West. "She has invited a party of friends to her house to witness the firing on Sumter."

"How delightful!" responded Kerchival in a forced tone of gaiety. "I hope, however, that they won't wait for breakfast until the fortress is bombarded."

"You think it will be a long wait?"

Well, Lieutenant West, I'll bet you an embroidered cigar case against a box of gloves that the first gun is fired before sunrise."

"Dane. You will lose the bet, Miss Gertrude, unless Major Rufin, unable to curb his patience any longer, should steal out and touch off a mortar on his own hook. Not that I shouldn't be overjoyed to offer you the gloves, particularly if—well, in the hope that—that one of the little hands belonging inside them shall—"

They were in the shadow of the elders as he spasmodically seized one of the aforesaid little hands. She withdrew it almost as promptly, murmuring:

"Shall remain in my own keeping for the present until some one comes along who has a good excuse for claiming it. So you don't believe that General Beauregard is going to open fire on Sumter this morning?"

"No; of course not."

"Well, I happen to know that everything is in readiness."

"It is a heap easier to have everything in readiness to do a thing than it is to do it. For instance, I have been ready a dozen times today to say to you, Miss Gertrude, that—that I—"

"Well, sir?"

"But I didn't, you know."

"Very likely General Beauregard has more nerve than you have."

"Oh, it is easy enough to set a few batteries around Charleston harbor. But when it comes to firing the first shot at woman—"

"At a woman! Why, what are you talking about?"

"I mean at the American flag. A man must be a—must have the nerves of—"

"You northern men are so slow to—"

"Yes, I know I've been slow, but I assure you, Miss Gertrude, that my heart—"

"Aren't you going north to join in the threatened invasion of our southern Confederate states?"

"Yes, that's our orders, I believe."

"You are ready to fight against my friends, against my own brother, your comrade. If that don't make us enemies what does?"

"Nothing can make me your enemy, Gertrude. My services belong to my country at call. I belong to the north."

"And I am a southern woman. There the fatal line is drawn."

Here Thornton and Jenny Buckthorn came up.

"I'm glad the attack on Sumter is to be made at last," declared Thornton.

"I do not share your pleasure in that prospect," said a serious voice over Gertrude's shoulder. It was that of her brother, Lieutenant Robert Ellingham.

"And you a southern gentleman!" retorted, Thornton, with the customary

shade of insolence.

"And you a northern gentleman?"

With the reluctant accent Bob gave to the word "gentleman" it actually seemed to be in quotation marks with an interrogation point after it.

"I am a southerner by choice. I shall join the cause," said Thornton curtly.

"We can take care of our own rights, sir. They will be safe in our keeping, even if you should not find it to your interest to run risks in our behalf."

"You'll find me ready for any risk you like," muttered Thornton, turning on his heel.

At the same moment Colonel Haverill, who had not participated in the dancing, approached from the direction of his wife's apartment. He held in his hand a white silk handkerchief, which he immediately offered to Lieutenant West, who took it, glanced at the initials—his own—thanked his superior officer and passed out to the ravens over-looking the lawn, where many colored lanterns twinkled. Here, almost as if by preconcerted arrangement, Mrs. Haverill joined him a moment later.

"Madam," said the young man, with embarrassed solicitude, "I beg to tell you how happy I am to see that your indisposition has vanished—also to offer humble apologies for my awkwardness and helplessness when I undertook to rush to your aid. You can always depend upon me to act the part of an idiot in such an emergency. Fortunately I was able to find Miss Gertrude and my sister and send them to you in time to be of real service. Colonel Haverill has just handed me back my handkerchief."

"Oh, thank you, Lieutenant, for everything. I suppose my husband had been to my room looking for me. Something came up today that has upset us both a bit. And it is in regard to that matter that I wish to ask you to do me a favor—a great service. Will you?"

(To be Continued.)

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

They Met by the Battery Sea Wall.

comrade. If that don't make us enemies what does?"

"Nothing can make me your enemy, Gertrude. My services belong to my country at call. I belong to the north."

"And I am a southern woman. There the fatal line is drawn."

Here Thornton and Jenny Buckthorn came up.

"I'm glad the attack on Sumter is to be made at last," declared Thornton.

"I do not share your pleasure in that prospect," said a serious voice over Gertrude's shoulder. It was that of her brother, Lieutenant Robert Ellingham.

"And you a southern gentleman!" retorted, Thornton, with the customary

shade of insolence.

"And you a northern gentleman?"

With the reluctant accent Bob gave to the word "gentleman" it actually seemed to be in quotation marks with an interrogation point after it.

"I am a southerner by choice. I shall join the cause," said Thornton curtly.

"We can take care of our own rights, sir. They will be safe in our keeping, even if you should not find it to your interest to run risks in our behalf."

"You'll find me ready for any risk you like," muttered Thornton, turning on his heel.

At the same moment Colonel Haverill, who had not participated in the dancing, approached from the direction of his wife's apartment. He held in his hand a white silk handkerchief, which he immediately offered to Lieutenant West, who took it, glanced at the initials—his own—thanked his superior officer and passed out to the ravens over-looking the lawn, where many colored lanterns twinkled. Here, almost as if by preconcerted arrangement, Mrs. Haverill joined him a moment later.

"Madam," said the young man, with embarrassed solicitude, "I beg to tell you how happy I am to see that your indisposition has vanished—also to offer humble apologies for my awkwardness and helplessness when I undertook to rush to your aid. You can always depend upon me to act the part of an idiot in such an emergency. Fortunately I was able to find Miss Gertrude and my sister and send them to you in time to be of real service. Colonel Haverill has just handed me back my handkerchief."

"Oh, thank you, Lieutenant, for everything. I suppose my husband had been to my room looking for me. Something came up today that has upset us both a bit. And it is in regard to that matter that I wish to ask you to do me a favor—a great service. Will you?"

(To be Continued.)

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

They Met by the Battery Sea Wall.

comrade. If that don't make us enemies what does?"

"Nothing can make me your enemy, Gertrude. My services belong to my country at call. I belong to the north."

"And I am a southern woman. There the fatal line is drawn."

Here Thornton and Jenny Buckthorn came up.

"I'm glad the attack on Sumter is to be made at last," declared Thornton.

"I do not share your pleasure in that prospect," said a serious voice over Gertrude's shoulder. It was that of her brother, Lieutenant Robert Ellingham.

"And you a southern gentleman!" retorted, Thornton, with the customary

shade of insolence.

"And you a northern gentleman?"

With the reluctant accent Bob gave to the word "gentleman" it actually seemed to be in quotation marks with an interrogation point after it.

"I am a southerner by choice. I shall join the cause," said Thornton curtly.

"We can take care of our own rights, sir. They will be safe in our keeping, even if you should not find it to your interest to run risks in our behalf."

"You'll find me ready for any risk you like," muttered Thornton, turning on his heel.

At the same moment Colonel Haverill, who had not participated in the dancing, approached from the direction of his wife's apartment. He held in his hand a white silk handkerchief, which he immediately offered to Lieutenant West, who took it, glanced at the initials—his own—thanked his superior officer and passed out to the ravens over-looking the lawn, where many colored lanterns twinkled. Here, almost as if by preconcerted arrangement, Mrs. Haverill joined him a moment later.

"Madam," said the young man, with embarrassed solicitude, "I beg to tell you how happy I am to see that your indisposition has vanished—also to offer humble apologies for my awkwardness and helplessness when I undertook to rush to your aid. You can always depend upon me to act the part of an idiot in such an emergency. Fortunately I was able to find Miss Gertrude and my sister and send them to you in time to be of real service. Colonel Haverill has just handed me back my handkerchief."

"Oh, thank you, Lieutenant, for everything. I suppose my husband had been to my room looking for me. Something came up today that has upset us both a bit. And it is in regard to that matter that I wish to ask you to do me a favor—a great service. Will you?"

(To be Continued.)

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

They Met by the Battery Sea Wall.

comrade. If that don't make us enemies what does?"

"Nothing can make me your enemy, Gertrude. My services belong to my country at call. I belong to the north."

"And I am a southern woman. There the fatal line is drawn."

Here Thornton and Jenny Buckthorn came up.

"I'm glad the attack on Sumter is to be made at last," declared Thornton.

"I do not share your pleasure in that prospect," said a serious voice over Gertrude's shoulder. It was that of her brother, Lieutenant Robert Ellingham.

"And you a southern gentleman!" retorted, Thornton, with the customary

shade of insolence.

"And you a northern gentleman?"

With the reluctant accent Bob gave to the word "gentleman" it actually seemed to be in quotation marks with an interrogation point after it.

"I am a southerner by choice. I shall join the cause," said Thornton curtly.

"We can take care of our own rights, sir. They will be safe in our keeping, even if you should not find it to your interest to run risks in our behalf."

"You'll find me ready for any risk you like," muttered Thornton, turning on his heel.

At the same moment Colonel Haverill, who had not participated in the dancing, approached from the direction of his wife's apartment. He held in his hand a white silk handkerchief, which he immediately offered to Lieutenant West, who took it, glanced at the initials—his own—thanked his superior officer and passed out to the ravens over-looking the lawn, where many colored lanterns twinkled. Here, almost as if by preconcerted arrangement, Mrs. Haverill joined him a moment later.

"Madam," said the young man, with embarrassed solicitude, "I beg to tell you how happy I am to see that your indisposition has vanished—also to offer humble apologies for my awkwardness and helplessness when I undertook to rush to your aid. You can always depend upon me to act the part of an idiot in such an emergency. Fortunately I was able to find Miss Gertrude and my sister and send them to you in time to be of real service. Colonel Haverill has just handed me back my handkerchief."

"Oh, thank you, Lieutenant, for everything. I suppose my husband had been to my room looking for me. Something came up today that has upset us both a bit. And it is in regard to that matter that I wish to ask you to do me a favor—a great service. Will you?"

(To be Continued.)

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

They Met by the Battery Sea Wall.

comrade. If that don't make us enemies what does?"

"Nothing can make me your enemy, Gertrude. My services belong to my country at call. I belong to the north."

"And I am a southern woman. There the fatal line is drawn."

Here Thornton and Jenny Buckthorn came up.

"I'm glad the attack on Sumter is to be made at last," declared Thornton.

"I do not share your pleasure in that prospect," said a serious voice over Gertrude's shoulder. It was that of her brother, Lieutenant Robert Ellingham.

"And you a southern gentleman!" retorted, Thornton, with the customary

shade of insolence.

"And you a northern gentleman?"

With the reluctant accent Bob gave to the word "gentleman" it actually seemed to be in quotation marks with an interrogation point after it.

"I am a southerner by choice. I shall join the cause," said Thornton curtly.

"We can take care of our own rights, sir. They will be safe in our keeping, even if you should not find it to your interest to run risks in our behalf."

"You'll find me ready for any risk you like," muttered Thornton, turning on his heel.

At the same moment Colonel Haverill, who had not participated in the dancing, approached from the direction of his wife's apartment. He held in his hand a white silk handkerchief, which he immediately offered to Lieutenant West, who took it, glanced at the initials—his own—thanked his superior officer and passed out to the ravens over-looking the lawn, where many colored lanterns twinkled. Here, almost as if by preconcerted arrangement, Mrs. Haverill joined him a moment later.

"Madam," said the young man, with embarrassed solicitude, "I beg to tell you how happy I am to see that your indisposition has vanished—also to offer humble apologies for my awkwardness and helplessness when I undertook to rush to your aid. You can always depend upon me to act the part of an idiot in such an emergency. Fortunately I was able to find Miss Gertrude and my sister and send them to you in time to be of real service. Colonel Haverill has just handed me back my handkerchief."

"Oh, thank you, Lieutenant, for everything. I suppose my husband had been to my room looking for me. Something came up today that has upset us both a bit. And it is in regard to that matter that I wish to ask you to do me a favor—a great service. Will you?"

(To be Continued.)

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

They Met by the Battery Sea Wall.

comrade. If that don't make us enemies what does?"

"Nothing can make me your enemy, Gertrude. My services belong to my country at call. I belong to the north."

"And I am a southern woman. There the fatal line is drawn."

Here Thornton and Jenny Buckthorn came up.

"I'm glad the attack on Sumter is to be made at last," declared Thornton.

"I do not share your pleasure in that prospect," said a serious voice over Gertrude's shoulder. It was that of her brother, Lieutenant Robert Ellingham.

"And you a southern gentleman!" retorted, Thornton, with the customary

shade of insolence.

"And you a northern gentleman?"

With the reluctant accent Bob gave to the word "gentleman" it actually seemed to be in quotation marks with an interrogation point after it.

"I am a southerner by choice. I shall join the cause," said Thornton curtly.

"We can take care of our own rights, sir. They will be safe in our keeping, even if you should not find it to your interest to run risks in our behalf."

"You'll find me ready for any risk you like," muttered Thornton, turning on his heel.

At the same moment Colonel Haverill, who had not participated in the dancing, approached from the direction of his wife's apartment. He held in his hand a white silk handkerchief, which he immediately offered to Lieutenant West, who took it, glanced at the initials—his own—thanked his superior officer and passed out to the ravens over-looking the lawn, where many colored lanterns twinkled. Here, almost as if by preconcerted arrangement, Mrs. Haverill joined him a moment later.

"Madam," said the young man, with embarrassed solicitude, "I beg to tell you how happy I am to see that your indisposition has vanished—also to offer humble apologies for my awkwardness and helplessness when I undertook to rush to your aid. You can always depend upon me to act the part of an idiot in such an emergency. Fortunately I was able to find Miss Gertrude and my sister and send them to you in time to be of real service. Colonel Haverill has just handed me back my handkerchief."

"Oh, thank you, Lieutenant, for everything. I suppose my husband had been to my room looking for me. Something came up today that has upset us both a bit. And it is in regard to that matter that I wish to ask you to do me a favor—a great service. Will you?"

(To be Continued.)

A great advertising medium—The Gazette Want Ad page.

Second Hand Furniture Can Be Sold Readily IF WANT ADS ARE USED

THE RATE FOR ADVERTISEMENTS in these classified columns is 1/2 cent a word each insertion. No order for less than 25 cents. The charge rate is 1 cent per word. Address can be given care of Gazette if so desired.

WANTED

MISCELLANEOUS.

WHEN YOU THINK OF Insurance. think of C. P. Beers. 1-28-11
WANTED—When you want your house cleaning done hire the Auto Vacuum Cleaner. F. H. Porter, New phone White 413. 3-14-11

WANTED—Copy of Gazette dated February 22, 1912. Will be paid for at Gazette Office. 3-17-11

WANTED—Mrs. Simon Evenson will take in washing. 315 Chatham St. Call New phone 1218 Black. 3-17-11

WANTED—Good place to work on farm by month with small family. Work guaranteed. Call 497 Old phone, 1406 Racine st. 3-17-11

WANTED TO RENT—House and barn. Not to exceed $14. 5-year lease. Call 841 Red. 3-15-11

WANTED—Second-hand roll top desk. New phone 586 Red. 3-14-11

WANTED—Two furnished rooms for light housekeeping on the ground floor. Phone 1481. 3-15-11

WANTED—Family or individual washing at home. First class work reasonable. Old phone 155. 3-16-11

WANTED—Two good roomers on the first floor. 402 E. Milwaukee street. 3-15-11

WANTED A LOAN of $2500 April 1, also $600. Good security. Bell phone 1806, Rock Co. 1287 Blue. A. W. Hall, 115 Locust street. 3-14-11

WANTED—To make up Hair Combs, Switches, Transformations, Pins, etc. Mrs. Hammond, 121 W. Milwaukee street, up stairs. New phone Blue 1237. 3-12-11

WANTED—About $6000 stock of goods preferably hardware or implements in exchange for 200 acre farm. Address "Stock" Gazette. 3-14-11

WANTED—People who have carpenter work to do to call 1259 Black. Wm. J. McGowan, lowest prices. 3-17-11

WANTED--FEMALE HELP
WANTED—Girl for kitchen work. Hotel Myers. 3-15-11
WANTED—Six young ladies to operate Power Stitching Machines. La-Watterson Shoe Co. 3-15-11
WANTED—A girl to run typewriter. Address "P. F." care of Gazette. 3-15-11

WANTED—Girl for general housework. No washing. Mrs. James Zanias, 307 W. Milwaukee. 3-14-11

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Call Bell phone 148. 3-14-11

WANTED—Girl at the Janesville Steam Laundry. 3-14-11

WANTED—A lady to represent a well known business house. Good wages assured. Address W. A. Gazette. 3-14-11

WANTED—Middle aged woman as housekeeper. Small family. Park street. 3-14-11

WANTED—Two women for head inspectors. Apply Shade Department, Hough Shade Corp. 3-14-11

WANTED—Immediately second girl. Good wages. Girls for private houses and hotels. Mrs. McCarthy, 522 W. Milwaukee St. Both phones. 3-10-11

WANTED—Two women for head inspectors. Apply Shade Department, Hough Shade Corp. 3-14-11

WANTED--MALE HELP
WANTED—Married man with a small family to work on farm. Address W. A. Reed, Rte No. 2. 3-17-11

WANTED—Partner, portable saw mill, have timber, everything required. Myself silent, have other business. Some cash required. M. C. Lord, 155 21st Ave., Seattle, Wash. 3-17-11

WANTED—Two boys over sixteen years of age for loom feeders. Apply Shade Department, Hough Shade Corp. 3-14-11

WANTED—Two men to work on two neighboring farms for eight months. Inquire of J. C. Youngslee, Rock Co. 3-15-11

WANTED SALESMEN—Two good men in each locality promptly. Experience unnecessary. Signet Oil Company, Cleveland, Ohio. 3-15-11

WANTED—Two boys over sixteen years of age for loom feeders. Apply Shade Department, Hough Shade Corp. 3-14-11

WANTED—A live representative either man or woman, capable of intelligently showing and actually selling, by a house to house canvasser, an Automatic Damper that is positively guaranteed to make a large saving in fuel either coal or wood. No replies will be considered unless applicant shows every promise of being successful.

This is not a "Wallington get rich quick" scheme but large earnings can be made, if the applicant has proper capabilities. The Damper has been so thoroughly tested out by experts, and on the market so long, and guarantee is so broad, it only depends on salesmanship. For full information write The American Automatic Damper Corp., Wallington, Conn. 3-15-11

WANTED—Bookkeeper. Give age, experience and salary. 3-14-11. Address P. O. Box 148.

WANTED—Steady boy to learn the baker's trade. Colvin Baking Co. 3-14-11

WANTED—Married or single man by month or year on farm. New phone. H. W. Lamb, Rte. J, Janesville. 3-14-11

WANTED—Young man of good character to clerk in Grocery store. Permanent position to right party. Cigarette smoker not wanted. Give reference and experience. 200, Gazette. 3-14-11

WANTED—Experienced Blacksmith of all kinds; first class. Machine: Tool Makers, Wood Pattern Makers; Draftsmen; one Tool Designer. In making application state age and experience, and address J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company, Racine, Wisconsin. 3-14-11

WANTED—500 men 20 to 40 years old wanted at once for Electric Railway Motormen and Conductors. $60 to $100 a month; no experience necessary. Fine opportunity. No strike; write immediately for application blank Address "Railroad" care of Gazette. 2-13-11

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Lower flat 320 North High street. All modern. $18.00 a month. Talk to Lowell. 3-17-11

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms. Call 1920 W. Blue or New Phone Blue 481. 3-17-11

FOR RENT—Heated flats S. D. Grubb. 3-15-11

FOR RENT—The neatest little store in town. Especially adapted for Ladies' and Children's fine trade. Millinery, Fancy Goods, Jewelry, Music Goods, Delicatessen. Will rent whole or half. No. 58 So. Main. L. H. Treat. 3-15-11

FOR RENT—Furnished room in private family. Gentleman preferred. 532 No. Washington street. 3-14-11

FOR RENT—Within 5 miles of Janesville 80 acres of land on shares or cash. Call at Hayes Bros. Office. Hayes Bros. 3-12-11

FOR RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. Modern. Phone 1222 White, 102 Linn. 3-14-11

FOR RENT—Good floor space. Steam heat. "B. K." Gazette. 3-15-11

FOR RENT—Two houses. Inquire T. E. Macklin, 317 Dodge street. 3-11-11

FOR RENT—House and barn. Inquire Rellly's bakery. 4-6-11

FOR SALE

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR SALE—Twelve dollar Essex Model incubator good as new $8.75. $8.00 brooder $4.95. Bell phone 174. Rock County phone Blue 327. 3-17-11

FOR SALE—Well built ceiling summer kitchen, 7x10 ft. Cheap if taken soon. 441 Madison street. 3-17-11

FOR SALE—Platform spring wagon in good condition. Cheap. Wm. Hemming, 56 So. Franklin. 3-17-11

FOR SALE—One-ton motor truck in good condition. Just the thing for a creamery route. C. W. Schwartz, Janesville. 3-15-11

PRIVATE SALE of household goods including dining room and bedroom furniture, chairs and pictures at 153 Cherry street, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 18 and 19. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—One 4 H. P. and one 6 H. P. gasoline engine, in good condition. C. S. Maltby, Old phone 649. 3-14-11

FOR SALE—Stack of straw. T. L. Terry, Rte. 2, New phone. 3-14-11

FOR SALE—Kiln dried maple clippings $2.50 per load. Pine kindling $1.50 per load. Schaller & McKelvey Lumber Co. 3-17-11

FOR SALE—One ton motor truck in good condition which we can show you upon request, this truck has been run about 6000 miles the motor about 1000 miles, the reason for this was the first motor was defective and the manufacturer installed a new one which runs like a clock and a pleasant capacity truck would be better suited for our long distance piano moving and the only use we have for truck service, we therefore offer our truck for quick shift. C. W. Schwartz, Transfer & Storage Co., Janesville. 3-17-11

FOR SALE—One 20 H. P. Avery Steam Engine. One 35-54 Avery Separator. One 4 Bottom Deer Engine Gang Plow. One 16 Nichols and Shepard Steam Engine. One 10 H. P. Advance Steam Engine. One 14-18 Sandwich Power Hay Press. One 16-18 Sandwich Power Hay Press. One 18 H. P. Fuller and Johnson Gasoline Engine. One 8 roll McCormick New Style Husker. One 6 H. P. Stover Gasoline Engine. One No. 6 H. P. Shaver Cream Separator. 700 lbs. $45.00. Nitscher Implement Co. 3-17-11

LADIES—Now is the time to select a pretty switch before you get your Easter bonnet. Switches from $2 to $25. Grey and all shades. Mrs. Sadler, 111 W. Milwaukee street. 3-14-11

FOR SALE—Four kinds of Washing Machines, Universal Wringers, etc. Talk to Lowell. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—Acorn Stoves and Ranges on easy payments. Better look these over they are the best buy on the market today. Talk to Lowell. 3-15-11

OUR MESSAGE TO ALL newly married couples is, to Talk to Lowell for Hardware of all kinds. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—Coaster Wagons and Roller Skates. Talk to Lowell. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—Wisconsin pedigree seed barley. University tested 99.8 pure. 94 ger. test. In ten bushel lots or over 75c per bushel, parties paying for sacks. John T. Atkinson, Tiffany, Wis. 3-11-11

CLOVER, ALFALFA, Field Seeds. Garden Seeds, of the highest quality. Rightly priced. Get our selling plan for your timely seed. P. H. Green & Son, N. Main street. 3-5-11

FOR SALE—Parcel Post scales. Weigh your packages in your office or home. Talk to Lowell. 3-15-11

WHITE PAPER FOR KITCHEN shelves, size 25x35 inches. Put up in packages of 20 sheets. 10 cents each. Gazette Printing Dept. 3-10-11

THE NEW GAZETTE PARCELS POST MAPS of the United States giving all units and the zones from our Unit No. 2263, the most correct map published, are ready for delivery at the Gazette. By paying up back subscriptions and paying for one year in advance for the Daily Gazette the map will be sent free. The map is regularly sold at $1.00. Gazette patrons may have it at 25 cents or by mail at 35 cents. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—At St. Joseph's Convent, a new set of Rosary beads, Medallions, Statues, Crucifixes and Prayer Books at reasonable prices. 12-6-11

FOR SALE—Fresh home-made Bitter Sweets at Honey's Sweet Shop, 307 W. Milwaukee street. Formerly Jonesville Candy Kitchen. 2-24-11

FOR SALE—Good live plumbing business in town of 50,000 inhabitants, including stock, tools, and automobile. Address "Plumber" 514 W. Blue street, Rockford, Ill. 2-18-11

FOR SALE—Second hand Stoddard-Dayton, fine condition, snap, $350.00. Alderman & Drummond. 1-25-11

FOR SALE—Engraved cards, Wedding invitations and Announcements engraved and embossed. Stationery produced in the very latest and newest letter designs. We have connections with several engraving houses which give us very prompt service. Call Phone Rock Co. 27. Bell 774 for Printing Department of the Gazette. 2-13-11

QUALITY CANDIES AT RAZOOK'S. 27-11

FOR SALE—Scratch tablets. Big size 5 cents. Gazette Office. 2-18-11

FOR SALE—Heavy wrapping paper for laying under carpets. Gazette office. 9-27-11

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE
FOR SALE—A good 204 acre farm six miles east of Beloit. Good barns and immediate possession. Thom Barker, Beloit. 3-17-11

FOR SALE—10-room house with bath on East street. Good location, city and soft water and gas. Good barn. A bargain. New phone 881 Blue. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—7-room house and 2 acres of land, all for $1900. 7-room house electric lights, good well and cistern, cement walks, chicken house. Located in Fourth Ward. Robert F. Buggs, 12 N. Academy street, Your Real Estate and Insurance Man. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—A 11-room house, modern, close in. Renting for $25.00 per month, aside from four rooms occupied by owner. Price $2500.00. Small payment down, balance at 5 per cent. "H" care Gazette. 3-15-11

IF YOUR ARE interested in real estate, call on or phone H. H. Blanchard, Sutherland Block, Janesville, Wis. 3-14-11

FOR SALE—Some bargains in city and farm property. A. W. Hall, both phones. Bell phone 1806, New 1287 Blue. 3-14-11

FOR SALE—First class two flat building on car line, all modern improvements, will sell outright or take smaller place in exchange. "FLAT" care Gazette. 3-12-11

FOR SALE—A good 40 acre farm for sale 2 miles from city limits, including all stock, feed and machinery. Call New Phone 371 Red. 3-14-11

POULTRY

FOR SALE—Fifty chickens and two roosters. Inquire Mr. M. McCue, 551 Benton Ave. 3-14-11

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred Rhode Island Red roosters. J. F. Newman, Both phones. 3-14-11

FOR SALE—LIVE STOCK

2,000 FARMERS READ THESE WANT ADS.

FOR SALE—Three year-old Oakley D colt well broken, also buggy and harness. Address "Trotter" Gazette. 3-17-11

FOR SALE—My driving horse. Gentle. Just the horse for women. Dr. Keller, Hayes Bldg. 3-15-11

FOR SALE—Horse, five years old, broke double and single work every way. S. Richards, 927 White. 3-14-11

LOST

LOST—A pocketbook containing money and receipts between 4th and Locust street. Finder please return to Gazette Office and receive reward. 3-15-11

MISCELLANEOUS

FREE DEMONSTRATION—Your rug or carpet cleaned in order to show the work of the Domestic Vacuum Cleaner. H. F. Nott, 313 E. Milwaukee St., New phone Red 719. 3-17-11

MONEY TO LOAN—On real estate. No commission. Wm. McRay 320 St. Lawrence Ave., Janesville. 3-10-11 eod

CISTERNS CLEANED—Thoroughly scrubbed by the old fashioned method—all hand work. Our charge is lower than anyone else's. Satisfaction for you or no pay for us. 280 Black. 3-15-11

STORAGE—For household goods and furniture of all kinds. This warehouse is clean and dry. Talk to Lowell. 3-15-11

UMBRELLAS COVERED and repaired. Premo Bros., 21 North Main street. 3-15-11

THE American Union Fire Insurance Co. of Philadelphia (in bankruptcy) is a Western Union company. Blanchard. 3-14-11

DR. A. P. BURRUS will make best quality of teeth during the next 2 weeks at excursion rates, that will last as long as the rest of the head. 3-13-11

MONEY TO LOAN—$2000 for 5 years. Farm security preferred. Address "E" Gazette. 3-12-11

FREE DEMONSTRATION—Your carpet and rug kept clean every day in the year by using the Domestic Vacuum Cleaner. New phone Red 719. H. F. Nott, 313 E. Milwaukee street. 3-12-11

OKY-ACETYLENE WELDING welds any kind of metal. Automobile parts and crank cases a specialty. B. Barton, 111 North Jackson, both phones. 3-11-11

ASHES HAULED—New phone 371 Red. 3-11-11

LICENSED PLUMBER and Tin Smith. Don't forget to get my estimates for your work. I can save you money. W. H. Smith, 58 So. River St. 3-8-11

TOBACCO GROWERS: We are ready to write contracts for 1913 Broadleaf tobacco. Get our price for the coming year before you decide on what seed to plant. Call at 616 S. Main St., or let us know. C. J. Jones & Son. 2-28-11

LADIES' AND GENTS' SHINING parlor dye any color shoes black. Clean Satin, Silk, White, Suede, Tan and Black shoes. 28 W. Milwaukee St. 2-22-11

SHOE REPAIRING

Best work quickly done. Walker. 417 W. Milwaukee. 3-14-11

Learn Automobile Driving and Repairing. We give you driving lessons and teach you all the technical parts to prepare you for a good paying position. Write for book "Car and Evening Class" to "Northwestern Motor Institute", 228-230-232 Wisconsin St., Milwaukee, Wis. 3-14-11

PAPER HANGING

PAPER HANGING—A specialty on all grades of paper. All work guaranteed first class. Both phones. Paul Davenport, 635 So. Jackson St. 3-10-11 a large stock of Mixed Paints, Varnishes, etc., all colors, first-class goods in good condition. Get a few cans now; paint is always handy around the house. Badger Drug Co., corner W. Milwaukee and River Sts.

CLOSING OUT

Quality Service RAZOOK'S CANDY PALACE

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—99-acre farm six miles from Janesville. All good buildings in good repair and newly painted. All new woven wire fences. The soil on this farm is good clay soil, no sand or gravel. Will accept some city property as part payment. Possession given April 1st. Joseph Fisher, Hayes Block. 3-14-11

Humphrey & Bauer

Real Estate, Loans Fire Insurance, Collections and Rentals. 421 Hayes Bldg. 3-14-11

Horses Wanted.

I will buy from 3 to 6 head of horses, from 6 to 10 years of age, 1200 to 1300 pounds, work horses. Price must be right. E. T. FISH Bell phone 105. Rock Co. 202. 3-14-11

J. E. KENNEDY Real Estate, Loans and Fire Insurance, Western Farm Lands a Specialty. SUTHERLAND BLOCK, Janesville, Wis.

CARPETS DYED JANESVILLE CHEMICAL STEAM DYE WORKS. C. F. BROCKHAUS & SON Props.

SCOTT & JONES, REAL ESTATE AND LOANS 415 Hayes Block, Rock Co. Phone 297. Bell Phone 197.

Travel

ALL ABOUT WHERE TO GO HOW TO GO AND WHEN TO GO AT THE GAZETTE TRAVEL BUREAU. Folders, Time Tables, Official Guide. ALL INFORMATION FREE FOR THE ASKING. GAZETTE OFFICE.

HARDWARE

If it is good hardware McNamara has it.

Professional Cards

H. L. MAXFIELD LAWYER

Both Phones. 31 W. Milwaukee.

EDWIN HOLDEN MECHANIC THERAPIST

Dry hot air and vapor baths combined with Mechanic Therapeutics. 322-23 Hayes Block JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

E. D. MCGOWAN A. M. FISHER

LAWYERS

309-210 Jackson Building, Janesville, Wisconsin.

OSTEOPATHY DR. K. W. SHIPMAN

402 Jackson Block. Office: Black, 224. New, Red 924. Old, 281. Even hours: 9 to 12 a. m. 2 to 5 p. m. Evening hours and Calls by Appointment.

THE Reliable Drug Co

invites you to inspect the unusually fine line of Easter perfumes and Toilet Waters displayed in their window.

Phone 988.

Clarke-Miller Company

Office Appliances and Supplies.

529 Wisconsin St. RACINE, WIS.

Going To Hatch Some Chickens?

Hatch them with an incubator. The modern way. Simple and easy. Come in and let us show you. All sizes from 50 eggs up.

Helms Seed Store 29 S. Main St.

Obey that impulse. Get the bottle of

Bronchine

AT Baker's Drug Store

It will cure your cough and cold, heal the lungs, sore from coughing, and make you feel good again.

25 cents a bottle

LEGAL NOTICES

PROPOSAL FOR PRINTING BALLOTS

Office of County Clerk, Janesville, Wis., March 4, 1913. Sealed bids for printing ballots for Judicial and Sup. of Courts will be received at my office in City of Janesville, not later than March 20th, 1913, at 5 o'clock, P. M. Bidders will state price per 1000, all ballots to be delivered at Court House, on or before March 27th free of charge. All work must be first class in all respects. Samples may be seen at my office, and the right to reject any and all bids.

HOWARD V. LEE, County Clerk.